Title of Course:	Western Civilization post 1648
Course Number	102 401
Course Description	This course will offer both an introduction to the study of history and an introduction to the history of the modern Western world. The aim is to provide students with a contextual understanding of how political, social, intellectual, and cultural developments shaped the policies of the Western world's leading nation-states both internally and with each other.
Credit Hours and Contact Hours	3 credits, 40 contact hours
Pre-requisites/co-requisites	None
Learning Objectives and Outcomes	By emphasizing writing, classroom discussion, and the close reading of historical texts and course materials, this class seeks to develop creative and critical thinking skills which can be applied to further historical study, other academic pursuits, and/or a job/career. Formally, the “Student Learning Outcomes” assessed in this course are as follows: SLO 1: Students will distinguish between primary and secondary sources and identify and evaluate evidence. (Relates to UNM/HED Area V, Competencies 1 & 2) SLO 2: Students will demonstrate in discussion and written work their understanding of different peoples and cultures in past environments and of how those cultures changed over the course of centuries. (Relates to UNM/HED Area V, Competency 2 and Area IV, Competencies 1 & 2)

SLO 3: Students will demonstrate in written work and class discussions the ability to recognize and articulate the diversity of human experience, including ethnicity, race, language, gender, as well as political, economic, social, and cultural structures over time and space. (Relates to UNM/HED Area V, Competency 3 and Area IV, Competencies 1 & 2)

SLO 4: Students will produce their own historical analysis of documents and develop the ability to think critically and historically when discussing the past. (Relates to UNM/HED Area V, Competencies 1 & 2)

SLO 5: Students will demonstrate ethical use of sources and provide accurate and properly formatted citations in formal papers.

Disabilities Policy:

In keeping with the university's policy of providing equal access for students with disabilities, any student with a disability who needs academic accommodations is welcome to meet privately with the course instructor. All conversations will be kept confidential. Students requesting any accommodations will also need to contact Mary Lou Mraz in the Accessibility Resource Center (ARC) at (505) 863-7527 to arrange an appointment. ARC, located in Gurley Hall 1127, will conduct an intake and, if appropriate, will provide an approved academic accommodation notification that will be sent to you. At that point, you may contact your instructor so that the letter can be reviewed and the accommodations can be discussed in relation to this course.

The Center for Academic Learning (Gurley Hall 2205/2210):

The Center for Academic Learning (CAL) offers free academic support for all enrolled full-time and part-time UNM-Gallup students. They are staffed by two Education Specialists and peer reading, writing, math, and science coaches, who provide one-on-one tutoring and/or study groups. Office hours are from 8:00 AM – 6:00 PM, Monday through Thursday, and 8:00 AM – 5:00 PM on Fridays. The Center is located at Gurley Hall 2205/2210. Students are encouraged to set appointments via email at kvbaldona@unm.edu (for reading/writing) or johnvils@unm.edu (math/science).

Course Outline

Teaching Methods: Instruction will include lecture and discussion.

Evaluation/Grading Methods: Your grades will be calculated according to the following rubric:

- Weekly Reading Quizzes [10%]
- Three Map Quizzes [10%]
- Attendance & Participation [10%] – includes participation in Top Hat questions
- Two 500-to-1000 word essays [10% each = 20%]
- Mid-term Exam (short essay and short questions) [25%]
- Final Exam (short questions – cumulative) [25%]

Required Texts:

1. Joshua Cole and Carol Symes. Western Civilizations: Their History & Their Culture, Vol. 2. Brief 4th Edition. New York: W.W. Norton, 2017.
2. James Brophy, Joshua Cole, John Robertson, Thomas Max Safley, Carol Symes. Perspectives from the Past: Primary Sources in Western Civilization, Vol. 2. 6th Edition. New York, NY: W.W. Norton, 2016.
3. Top Hat software subscription (can be purchased at the UNM-G bookstore)

Assessment Methods:

- Map Quizzes will be given three times throughout the course. Students will be given a study guide for each quiz one week in advance.
- Twelve Weekly Reading Quizzes will be given. The lowest two quiz grades will be dropped.
- Students will be expected to write two 500-to-1000-word essays. These essays will be due at the beginning of class on February 21st and April 18th. Students will be given a hand-out two weeks before each essay is due outlining expectations and providing an essay prompt.
- The Mid-term Exam will be given on March 7th. The Exam will include short answer questions and an essay question. A study guide will be provided at least one week in advance.
- The Final Exam will be given on May 9th. The Exam will include only short answer questions, but will cover material from the entire semester. A study guide will be provided one week in advance.

Other Policies:

1. Attendance is mandatory. If you are unable to attend class, simply send me an email explaining why. If you consistently miss class, I will lower your participation grade. If you miss class, you are still responsible for understanding the content of that class.
2. Tardiness is frustrating and disruptive. If you consistently show up to class late and/or leave class early, I will lower your participation grade.
3. In this class cell phones are tools for participation. Please make sure they are turned to “silent mode” before class starts and do not allow them to distract you. Laptops are generally prohibited.
4. I do not give make-up examinations unless arrangements have been made with me prior to the scheduled exam. Late work will be accepted, but will be penalized one-third of a letter grade for each day the assignment is turned in after the due date.
5. Plagiarism is a major violation of the academic honor code and shows not only a lack of respect for the scholarship of others, but also an inability to take this course (and, more generally, academic study) seriously. You must credit your sources. Any acts of intentional plagiarism will result in a failing grade for the assignment and may result in a failing grade for the course.
6. The University of New Mexico-Gallup, as an equal opportunity/affirmative action employer and educator, complies with all applicable federal and state laws regarding nondiscrimination and affirmative action. UNM-G is committed to a policy of equal opportunity for all persons and does not discriminate on the basis of race/ethnicity, color, national origin, age, spousal affiliation, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, medical condition, disability, religion, pregnancy, genetic information, or veteran status or employment. Inquiries or complaints may be addressed to UNM’s Office of Equal Opportunity at 505-277-5251.
7. Moreover, while I encourage intense and sometimes heated discussion in my courses, inflammatory language meant to undermine or ridicule an individual for any reason is unacceptable. It should go without saying, but any personal insults aimed at an individual’s gender, race, sexual orientation, or disability will result in a prompt request to leave my classroom and potential disciplinary action.
