About the Founder & Artistic Director, Daniel Johnson

Since its creation by founder and Artistic Director, Daniel Johnson, Texas Early Music Project has delighted central Texas audiences with intriguing, evocative, and innovative concerts. Johnson specializes in the music of Medieval and Renaissance Spain and France, the Sephardim, the early Baroque works of Monteverdi and Charpentier, and ballads from 17th- and 18th-century Scotland. He directs the Texas Toot Early Music Workshop and is a co-director of the Amherst Early Music Festival. He was inducted into the Austin Arts Hall of Fame in the spring of 2009.

Garden of Delights:
A Musical Bounty

Greetings, fans and friends, old and new. Others have written more eloquently than I ever could about our current situation: Being a musician deprived of performing in front of an audience. Others have written more poetically than I can about the need to balance our love of music with the protocols necessary to calm the raging storm, invisible though it may be.

All I can say is that I’m so grateful to be able to bring my colleagues to this video format to present music that is rare and beautiful, distant yet timely.

We thank you for joining us and we look forward to the time when we can once again look at you while we perform and, when we’ve performed something that you really enjoyed, hear that tiny but perceptible gasp before you start applauding.

That is such a lovely memory.

Our 22nd concert season, though it is a bit truncated and in the new-to-us format of video, will include moments that inspire nostalgia and joy, melancholy and empathy, and, we hope, awe that such musical beauty has existed in this world for hundreds of years and we get to experience it here and now. From lullabies sung around the world to thisish and very oldish music for Chanukah and Christmas, we hope to inspire and entertain you, and perhaps bring a wee tear of joy to you. And we hope to enlighten, delight, and absolutely entertain you with our music history videos and our performance of Boccaccio’s masterpiece.

This season will indeed be a musical bounty, and one filled with new experiences and expectations!

Join us for a little nostalgia and a lot of beauty.

Preserving the Past.
Enriching the Present.
Engaging the Future.
