Logline: Murder mystery/romantic comedy about a high school photographer living in a hotel who simultaneously grapples with a strange disappearance and the unreturned affection of her best friend.

Character:	Gender:
Amy Alexander	Female

Description:
17/21. Small stature, quiet manner. Moderately attractive, with a slightly unsettling demeanor produced by her fixed gaze and attitude of suspended judgment. Analytical and, when engaged on a problem, single-focused to the point of sociopathy. LEAD

Role Requires Nudity?

No

Character:	Gender:
Julian Jameson (JJ)	Male

Description:
17/24. Amy's best friend. Moderately attractive, but with the slightly gangly and awkward carriage of the overgrown, skinny teenager. Eager and slightly jittery speech pattern, especially when caught in conflict. Desperately in love with Amy. LEAD

Role Requires Nudity?

No

Character:	Gender:
Maria Alexander	Female

Description:
38. Amy's mother. Small, quiet, and attractive, with a tightly-controlled physical appearance and presence. Always vaguely unsettling to talk to, and downright alarming to be around when she's angry. Saves up her softer moments for when she really, really needs them. SECONDARY LEAD

Role Requires Nudity?

No

Character:	Gender:
Ulysses Eastwood	Male
Description:
40ish, but a little weathered. Always seems to be enjoying a joke he's not bothering to tell, but it might be a cloak for inner sadness he's not willing to show. SECONDARY LEAD
Role Requires Nudity?
No
Character:	Gender:
Robert Marshall	Male
Description:
40s/60s. Police Chief/Detective. Slow-paced and thoughtful. Kind in manner, but frequently gets lost in his own train of thought and makes odd or nonsensical replies to questions. SECONDARY LEAD
Role Requires Nudity?
No
Character:	Gender:
Charlotte Kendrick	Female
Description:
60s. Current owner of The Westminster Hotel, sister of previous owner. Kind but anxious face, and abrupt manner, because if she takes time for compassion she won't have the nerve to deliver bad news. 4 scenes, 26 lines
Role Requires Nudity?
No
Character:	Gender:
Chief Linder	Male
Description:
60s. Police Chief of Winona in the 90s, now retired. Solemn expression, unimaginative mind. Goes with what's in front of him. 2 scenes, 8 lines
Role Requires Nudity?
No
Character:	Gender:
Karen	Female
Description:
35-45. An easily-flustered member of the Westminster Hotel housekeeping staff who uses her down time to sneak around listening at doors. Can stay calm in crisis, but needs someone to do her thinking for her. 6 scenes, 8 lines
Role Requires Nudity?
No
