Dr. Paul Chamberlain is the director of the Institute for Christian Apologetics at Trinity Western University (ACTS division) and has taught ethics, philosophy of religion and Christian Apologetics at TWU since 1990. He has also worked with Ravi Zacharias International Ministries during part of that time. He is an effective communicator both in and out of the classroom. His humorous, down-to-earth manner appeals to a wide variety of people. Drawing from the media and using a professional power point presentation, his seminars are both interesting and relevant. Dr. Chamberlain has appeared on numerous radio and television talk shows, debated on university campuses, and is a frequent guest speaker at public functions. He is the author of four books: Can We be Good Without God, Final Wishes, How To Talk About Good and Bad Without Getting Ugly: A Guide to Moral Persuasion, and Why People Don't Believe: Confronting Seven Challenges to Christian Faith as well as a number of articles addressing current social and moral issues.

Responding to Secular Perspectives on Christian Faith

DO YOU EVER ...

- hesitate to share your faith
because you're afraid you won't have "good" answers to questions?
- freeze up
when someone challenges or questions your faith or lifestyle?
- want to feel equipped to respond persuasively to today's main objections to Christian beliefs and morals?
- wish you could do more to counteract the negative perceptions and prejudices people often have of the church and Christians as intolerant and exclusionary?

Then these sessions are for you!

LEARN HOW YOU CAN ...

- understand our culture
- interact more effectively with your non-Christian friends about their perspectives on Christian faith
- live out your Christian worldview in our pluralistic society

BE EQUIPPED ... (The following questions are addressed)

- "Is Religion, including Christianity, dangerous?"
- "Isn't Christianity anti-gay, anti-women, anti-environment?"
- "Physician-assisted Suicide: What now?"
- "How can Jesus be the only way? What about other faiths?"
- "What can I say to someone who doesn't believe in God, or doesn't know if there is a God?"
- "How can a supposedly loving God condemn good people to hell simply because they've never heard of Jesus?"
- "Nobody knows what caused God in the first place ... How do you know the Christian explanation is right?"
- "Isn't the Old Testament God immoral?"

Dr. Chamberlain expertly examines contemporary issues and obstacles to faith in this seminar. Drawing from the secular media and using power point, his information is both interesting and relevant. You'll find answers to help you face current moral questions with confidence.
