

Worshipping God through our testimony (Rev. 12:11; 19:10)

1. tell the group that we want to celebrate with them what God has done in their lives this week/month/year. We will do so by allowing time for everyone who wants to give a one sentences testimony of what God has done in and through them. After each one we will celebrate together by making a joyful noise together with instruments and shouting...example: Paul: "God healed me of my headache." Everyone Yeah!!! Thank you God!! (noise with instruments) Susana: "He helped me make an A on my exam!!! Everyone Yeah!!! Thank you God!! (noise with instruments)
2. have one or two testimonies—have those people pray for others in that group that need God to do the same thing in their lives (example if some one was healed have them pray for those who need healing or if God provided have them pray for people in the group that need provision).
3. tell the history/testimony of a song or hymn than sing the song all together

Worshipping God through Prayer (the key is to encourage people to either pray all at the same time or to pray short prayers so that all that want to be engaged can be so)

1. pick a topic to praise God for and have everyone pray at the same time about this (example God is merciful, God is loving, God is just, etc)
2. Have it be a night where only thanksgiving prayers are prayed
3. pray a prayer out of scripture together such as the Lords prayer, the pray in John 17, etc
4. pick a prayer in the Bible read it and have everyone write their own out...take time for a few people to read/pray their own
5. instead of using songs use prayers as you engage your body in different positions of praise and worship (example lets all lift our hands and worship God, or lets all bow down together and worship god is silence, or in prayer)
6. turn on worship music but don't sing just enjoy being in the presence of the Lord and having interment conversation with Him (this is sometimes called soaking prayer)

Worshiping God through art

1. pick a character of God and ask everyone to draw a picture or write something about what that character means to them
2. pick something/an area of you life that you need God in and surrender it to him as you draw a picture/or poem about what you want to surrender to him

4. thank God for being your creator and ask him to help you to create things that would bring him glory or describe him—draw/write what ever comes to mind---share it with the group and look for themes maybe God will speak something special to you all as a whole

Declaring His character (Heb. 13:15)

1. take a box and papers and have everyone write down one or two words describing who God is to them—now put them back in the box everyone draws a different piece of paper and they pray short prayers of thanks and praise worship using that word/characteristic
2. bring words with the names of God already on them (if your group is mainly no Christians than use words/characteristics that have already been studied in the group) every one take three---now instruct the people to pray a one or two sentences prayer using that characteristic
3. bring words with the names of God already on them (if your group is mainly no Christians than use words/characteristics that have already been studied in the group) and paper and pencils/color pencils have each person draw what they think of /represents
Don't forget to take a few min and share because the point is to declare who God is and what he means to us
