Overview

The U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) is looking for the best and brightest to join our team. Our mission is to protect investors, maintain fair, orderly, and efficient markets, and facilitate capital formation. A career with the SEC offers work that is exciting, challenging and rewarding. You can contribute to securities regulation and enforcement while making a positive difference for the American investing public.

Duties

- Serve as a Senior Specialized Examiner and subject matter expert regarding the hedge fund or private equity industry;
- Conduct, direct and participate as a team member in difficult and sensitive examinations that are broad in scope and may set precedent for future examinations;
- Serve as a resource for examiners and senior management who encounter issues in examinations of the strategies, governance, compensation practices, investment practices, risk management and compliance practices of hedge funds or private equity funds;
- Devise risk-based examination techniques for uncovering problems and probing areas that might be susceptible to abuses by hedge fund and private equity advisers and make recommendations regarding the priorities and methodologies of the examination program; and
- Provide authoritative analysis, guidance and expertise regarding the hedge fund and private equity industry.

Qualifications

- All qualification requirements must be met by the closing date of this announcement.
- Qualifying experience may be obtained in the private or public sector. Experience refers to paid and unpaid experience, including volunteer work done through National Service programs (e.g., Peace Corps, AmeriCorps) and other organizations (e.g., professional; philanthropic; religious; spiritual; community, student, social). Volunteer work helps build critical competencies, knowledge, and skills and can provide valuable training and experience that translates directly to paid employment. You will receive credit for all qualifying experience, including volunteer experience. Additional qualifications information can be found here.
