

VULTURE

distortion

Congratulations

on your purchase of the Vulture distortion from T-Rex Effects.

Aside from delivering absolute top class distortion, Vulture give you unprecedented control over the tone of your distorted sound. Be sure to experiment with different levels of LOW and FAT BOOST as you try out different TONE settings.

The better you know your Vulture distortion, the more it will give you in return.

Using your Vulture distortion

The T-Rex Vulture is a distortion with a difference.

The two knobs at the top of the unit, GAIN and LEVEL, let you control how much of a distorted edge you want and control your overall volume when the pedal is engaged.

Below these knobs in the center is the TONE knob. Turn it all the way to the left for a bassier, more subdued distortion. Turn it up to add harmonics and top-end edge to your distorted sound.

When you've found the right level of GAIN and TONE for your setup, try turning up the LOW BOOST knob and move from a combo amp feel to a heavy stack rumble. Or experiment with the FAT BOOST knob, which kicks up the low mids from a 10" crack to a beefier 12" honk. That's right—it's speaker cabinet modeling right built in to your distortion.
