

GRAHAM EREAUX

www.grahamereaux.com //// graham.ereaux@gmail.com

EDUCATION:

- Bachelor of Fine Arts, 2013 - Mount Allison University, Canada

EXHIBITIONS:

- Flash Forward 2013, Fairmont Battery Wharf, Boston, USA, 2014
- Flash Forward 2013, Photofusion, London, UK, 2013
- Flash Forward 2013, Neubacher Shor Contemporary, Toronto, Canada, 2013
- The Walls of Utopia, Xchanges Gallery, Victoria, Canada, 2013
- And All Sate Mute, Eyelevel Gallery, Halifax, Canada, 2013
- From Fodder Farm to Wind Farm, Gairdner Gallery, Sackville, Canada, 2013
- Songwriters, Mount Allison Conservatory Gallery, Sackville, Canada, 2012
- The Service Station, Cafe Aberdeen Gallery Space solo exhibition, Moncton, Canada, 2012

GRANTS AND AWARDS:

- Magenta Foundation's Flash Forward Emerging Photographer, 2013
- Arts New Brunswick Arts Scholarship, 2012
- Marjorie Young Bell Fine Arts Award, 2012

PUBLICATIONS:

- Flash Forward 2013, Magenta Foundation, 2013
- 7 Mondays, Anchorage Press, 2010

ACHIEVEMENTS:

- Guest lecture at Mount Allison University, 2013. Make it True. Make it Cheap. Make it Quick: The geometric aesthetic in modern architecture, 1890-1930

BIOGRAPHY:

- Graham Ereaux is a photographer from Sackville, New Brunswick, Canada. He uses large and medium format photography to explore socio-physical landscapes ranging from North America consumerist utopias to local seniors among his community. The Magenta Foundation - one of North America's leading contemporary photography publications - has labeled him as an important emerging photographer.