Gitler & _____

Presents Kristian Glynn: And Again Another Crippling Love Story: Part 2

June 16, 2015 – July 20, 2015
Opening Tuesday June 16, 6:00 – 9:00 PM

(May 26, 2015) Gitler & _____ is proud to present And Again Another Crippling Love Story: Part 2, from Australian-born artist Kristian Glynn. Glynn has exhibited regularly with Gitler over the years, dating back to the gallery's days as a pop-up. This is the artist's third solo show with the gallery and the second in a trilogy of exhibitions that will conclude in early 2016, and include a full color catalog of 100+ recent works by the artist. The exhibition will run from June 16 to July 20, 2015.

Baby Hates My Music, 2014; acrylic on paper, 9 x 12 in.

In Glynn's latest (and extensive) collection of paintings, one discovers a melancholy universe of lovers, travelers and performers, all wayward souls in their own right, framed askew and sublimely vulnerable. Combining the seductive portraiture style of Schiele, the biomorphic terror of Bacon, and his own penchant for poetry and heartache, Glynn has created one-off storyboards that speak volumes. Glynn wears his heart on his sleeve, and allows narrative to inform each work—"In my chest I was a child"; "Show off all your dead flowers"; "Today I beg you away"—as much as form and compositional style. If Kafka had been a romantic, his drawings may have resembled these.

And Again Another Crippling Love Story: Part 2 will open on Tuesday evening, June 16, beginning at 6:00 PM.

Gitler & _____ is an art gallery dedicated to showcasing rising artists from around the world. Gitler & _____ seeks out talent through chance and word-of-mouth, moving in between genres to identify original craftsmen and visionaries who may not otherwise be brought to market. Formerly a pop-up gallery that held various solo and group shows throughout NYC and beyond, founder Avi Gitler premiered its permanent Harlem location in September 2014.
