World Read Aloud Day

2022 BOOK PICKS

Proud Sponsor of LitWorld

Little Rosa
by Mr. E

It's the Strangest Bus Ever!
Every morning, Little Rosa gets on the bus. But one day, things start to get very strange.

9780578180472
www.outskirtspress.com/littlerosa

Sadie the Super Hairo
by K’imm Norita
Sadie was born with a headful of mystical, magical hair. Sadie learns that instead of trying to tame her hair, she should become one with her magnificent mane.

9781977227805
www.outskirtspress.com/sadiethesuperhairo

The Girl with the Giggling Hair
by Nancy Nelson Ewing
A story about everyone's innate gifts which allow them to connect and celebrate their uniqueness with one another.

9781478794462
www.outskirtspress.com/gigglinghair

Different Like Me
by Lisa DeFinis Lohmann
Wilson the dog will grab your heart as he discovers how the challenges of being different are perhaps the best thing that ever could have happened to him.

9781977204486
www.outskirtspress.com/differentlikeme

Where is Sissy?
by Robin R. Lowe
During a game of hide-n-seek, Lila encounters wonderful surprises at each turn with an unexpected twist that even she couldn't have guessed.

9781478738947
www.outskirtspress.com/whereississy

ME PHI ME
by Adrienne Drummond
A cross-generational book that expresses the importance of maintaining individuality when joining social groups with shared goals and interests.

9781977219688
www.outskirtspress.com/mephimei

What Makes Me Happy, Healthy, and Alive?
by Teresa Wolfe
Look beyond the basic necessities of life to explore love, family, and community and find ways to grow, create, contribute, feel safe, have fun—and thrive!

9781977231000
www.outskirtspress.com/whatmakesmehappyhealthyalive

Sadie was born with a headful of mystical, magical hair. Sadie learns that instead of trying to tame her hair, she should become one with her magnificent mane.

Little Brown Girl
by Davina Callahan
A story of how your creativity, uniqueness, and character help you to persevere and achieve your dreams—you can become anything.

9781977240378
www.outskirtspress.com/littlebrowngirlyoucaneverything

You Are Just Right
by Joni Crimmins
Growing up can be tough if you feel you don’t "fit in." A mother’s story shows that we are all pieces of a bigger picture and that you must follow your own heart.

9781478772514
www.outskirtspress.com/youarejustright

Wilson the dog will grab your heart as he discovers how the challenges of being different are perhaps the best thing that ever could have happened to him.

It's the Strangest Bus Ever!
Every morning, Little Rosa gets on the bus. But one day, things start to get very strange.

During a game of hide-n-seek, Lila encounters wonderful surprises at each turn with an unexpected twist that even she couldn't have guessed.

A story about everyone's innate gifts which allow them to connect and celebrate their uniqueness with one another.

A cross-generational book that expresses the importance of maintaining individuality when joining social groups with shared goals and interests.
World Read Aloud Day

Uniquely Me by Sonya Blackburn
Discover what makes little Mya unique in this family story about a 4-year-old reflecting on what qualities make her unique and interesting.
9781977229892
www.outskirtspress.com/uniqueleyme

Be Nice by Tyrone Dillard
Friendly characters explain how it makes someone feel if we use mean words and encourages others to be nice by giving a smile or a hug.
9781977217967
www.outskirtspress.com/benice

Demi & Brooklyn Covid 19 Playdate by Willi Ray
Best friends learn a new way to keep their playdates going and stay safe at the same time during the Covid 19 pandemic.
9781977242594
www.outskirtspress.com/DemiandBrooklynCovid19Playdate

The Little Boy Who Wouldn’t Hug by Auntie Fran
A story of lost security and how little Darnell navigates through difficult emotions of anxiety and fear to find happiness again.
9781478761044
www.outskirtspress.com/TheLittleBoyWhoWouldNotHug

The Duck Who Lost the Courage to Swim by Bernice L. Dunlap
When Goldie the duck has a scary dream about drowning, she wakes up too afraid to swim. Will her friends be able to help her find her courage once again?
9781478755388
www.outskirtspress.com/BerniceLee

Jesus Loves to Hear Me Pray by Roberta B. Perry
Children learn to see the heart of Jesus when they pray. Helping them understand that Jesus is the best listener and everything a child says is important to Him.
9781478758594
www.outskirtspress.com/JesusLovestoHearMePray

I’ve Been Kissed by John Joyce
The tale of a toad named Bufo, born alone in a dangerous, watery world, and his journey to suburbia where he finds friends and true love.
9781478767381
www.outskirtspress.com/ivebeenkissed

The Stinkie Winkie Adventures by Tangee Marcia Dingle
Explore a young boy’s feelings as he learns his mother is having a baby. Share his struggles as the baby arrives and his realization that having a sibling isn’t that bad!
9781977243133
www.outskirtspress.com/stinkiewinkie_tangeedingle

Six Bees for Children by Dorothy Sweet Calhoun
A collection of educational wisdom & guiding principles for young children. A tale to inspire success, build personal development, and foster self-esteem.
9781432788704
www.outskirtspress.com/sixbeesforchildren

Best friends learn a new way to keep their playdates going and stay safe at the same time during the Covid 19 pandemic.

Proud Sponsor of LitWorld