DESCRIPTION:
Spartanburg Academic Movement (SAM), a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization located in Spartanburg, South Carolina, is looking for a Collaborative Action and Engagement AmeriCorps VISTA member who is passionate about community engagement and outreach, education and youth development, and who is awakened to the crucial importance of academic achievement for every child, preschool to post-secondary, cradle to career. The VISTA will receive a living allowance, relocation allowance, end of service AmeriCorps Eli Segal Education Award (valued at $6,095 upon completion of service), health allowance, and many other benefits. Join a movement of education, youth, business, government, foundation, community, and faith leaders across Spartanburg County, working together in pursuit of economic mobility for all.

DUTIES:
The Collaborative Action and Engagement Coordinator will work in Spartanburg, SC to support collaborative action groups working to close equity gaps in three of SAM’s learning outcomes: kindergarten readiness, high school graduation, and college enrollment. This will entail working with community leaders to identify root-causes and co-develop solutions to advance equitable outcomes using continuous improvement. The VISTA member will enhance youth engagement through our out-of-school-time collaborative and collate a resource guide of current partners. The member will also assist graduating high school students on their post-secondary journey by helping to recruit, train, and manage community volunteers who will support students during the summer months.
