BACKPACK PROGRAM

Community Outreach Services is offering a new Food 4 Thought Backpack Program. The intent of this program is to provide food goods for families that are in need during the weekends. This program will be available to children from K through grade 5 this year at all the elementary schools in the RSU21 school system.

The food will be sent home via backpack every week starting Friday, September 22nd and running through the end of the school year. If you are interested in participating in this free food backpack program, please call Mary Lou Havey at 284-4677 or email at mlhavey@rsu21.net
