

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
Media Advisory/Photo Opportunity

Contact: Dolores Parker, 941-487-7472
Dolores.Parker@gmail.com

Ariel Serrano, founder and director, Sarasota Cuban Ballet School, 941-365-8400
Info.sarasotacubanballet@gmail.com

International Master Teacher, Delia Ballart Arcia to Guest Teach Final Weeks of Sarasota Cuban Ballet's 2013 Summer Intensive Program

When: Friday, June 28, 2013
11:00 a.m. - Noon

Where: Sarasota Cuban Ballet School
701 N. Beneva Rd, Suite 700
Sarasota, FL 34232

What: Delia Ballart Arcia will guest teach the Sarasota Cuban Ballet School's most advanced students during the final weeks of its Summer Intensive Program. She will focus on perfecting technique and body strengthening with the school's senior students who have studied ballet for 6-7 years and are between the ages of 13-16.

Ms. Ballart Arcia earned her bachelors degree in Stage Arts and Ballet Instruction in Cuba, where she was a ballet master for the school and the Ballet of Camaguey Company. She assists in the choreography of stage dance and performance and has received numerous awards and honors throughout her career.

The Sarasota Cuban Ballet School's first Summer Intensive is drawing participants from various states in the southeast region, including Kentucky, Georgia, North Carolina and Sarasota. First segment guest instructors included Monica Isla and Rolando Yanes, from the Milwaukee Ballet.

More Information:

Founded in 2012 by Ariel Serrano and Wilman Hernandez, The Sarasota Cuban Ballet School teaches in the tradition of the Cuban technique, known for its beauty, strength and precision. The award winning school provides world class ballet education to students at all levels.

###