DR. WANDA SHELTON JOINS TOSS TEAM

New Assistant Director Position Filled

NASHVILLE –The Tennessee Organization of School Superintendents released the following statement announcing the addition of Dr. Wanda Shelton in a new Assistant Director role:

The Tennessee Organization of School Superintendents (TOSS) has recently launched the Associate Leadership Institute (ALI), a professional development membership for school leaders, such as supervisors, principals, assistant principals, etc. To manage this new piece of the organization, TOSS chose former Lincoln County Director of Schools, Dr. Wanda Shelton, to join the staff as an Assistant Director.

Dr. Shelton has over 35 years of professional experience, along with her Master’s and Doctorate degrees, in education. She has spent the last nine years serving as the superintendent of Lincoln County Schools. Wanda’s passion and excellence have not gone unnoticed. Just in the last year, she has been honored as Tennessee Superintendent of the Year, South Central District Superintendent of the Year, Commissioner’s Assessment Committee member, and Tennessee NCLB waiver committee member.

Executive Director, Wayne Miller, stated “I am excited to add this resource for Tennessee educators, and even more excited that Dr. Wanda Shelton will be leading the work. I believe this is a defining moment as TOSS continues to grow.”

Dr. Shelton’s retirement from Lincoln County Schools took effect at the end of December, and she has now started working in her position at TOSS.

The Tennessee Organization of School Superintendents (TOSS) is the leading advocate organization for public education in the state of Tennessee. Since 1975, TOSS has been progressing public education and addressing the needs of its administrators. TOSS provides advocacy at the state level for education issues that are high priorities for Tennessee schools, and is comprised of district leaders who are committed to lifelong learning, best practice sharing, and continuous improvement.
