20TH ANNUAL MERITAN MOONLIGHT
CLASSIC BIKE TOUR BENEFITTING MERITAN

AUGUST 24, 2019
RICHARD & ANNETTE BLOCH
CANCER SURVIVORS PARK

This was my first organized ride. I enjoyed the ride and the cheering of the volunteers. Overall great first experience for me! See y’all next year!!!

VENDOR PACKAGE
The 20th Annual Moonlight Classic Bike Tour is an annual fundraising event for Meritan. This year, our ride is back in East Memphis and will start and finish at Richard & Annette Bloch Cancer Survivors Park. This year’s theme is “901!” We will have local food, local beer, local entertainment, and games for our riders at the tailgate!

Meritan provides health, life, and social services to at-risk populations of all ages across four states. Services include specialized foster care, on-the-job training and career services for low income seniors, home health, in home non-medical personal care, and independent and support services for people with developmental and intellectual disabilities. Meritan is also a proud member of the Memphis area Coordinated Response to Elder Abuse team.

Meritan’s Mission: “Improve well being and promote independence throughout life’s stages with quality and compassion.”
