

alt break art fair, Art in Flux & Rush Arts Present:

Advancing Intersectional Feminism in Art and Activism

a panel discussion on the importance of intersectional feminism in arts and activism for human rights

Saturday, March 4th, 2-4 pm

Rush Arts Gallery

526 W 26th Street, #311 (between 10th Avenue and 11th Ave)

Program will consist of a performance by Aya Rodriguez-Izumi, followed by remarks by attending artists on the current exhibition, REFRESH, on view for women's history month, introduction to alt_break art fair and panel discussion.

Panel Moderated by Charlotte Mouquin, Director, Rush Galleries

Panel participants include Leanne Stella, Founder - Art in Flux, Aya Rodriguez-Izumi - Artist, and Dawne Langford, Independent Curator/Producer and Alison Cornyn, Artist and Activist, Incorrigitables project on youth justice for girls

Refreshments will be provided by Rush Arts - panel is free and open to the public

Rush Philanthropic
ARTS FOUNDATION

ART IN FLUX

alt ↻ break

Refreshments will be provided by Rush Arts - panel is free and open to the public