Introit Hymn

Blessed be God: Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

Blessed be God's kingdom, now and forever.

The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, be with you all.

And also with you.

We are the body of Christ.

His Spirit is with us.

The peace of the Lord be always with you.

And also with you.

All may exchange a sign of peace.

SENTENCE

The Lord sent forth his word and healed them, and saved them from destruction; Let them give thanks to the Lord for his unfailing love and his wonderful deeds for his children. Psalm 107. 20-21.

THE COLLECT

Almighty God and Father of all, we come to you trusting in your mercy, knowing that your steadfast love endures forever. Comfort us and those who have been harmed or displaced by fire. Grant us strength to meet the days ahead, to know your peace, and renew our hope; through your son Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God now and for ever. Amen.

FIRST READING

Lamentations 3. 17-26

A reading from the book of Lamentations

My soul is shut out from peace; I have forgotten happiness.
And now I say, 'My strength is gone, that hope which came from the Lord'.
Brooding on my anguish and affliction is gall and wormwood.
My spirit ponders it continually and sinks within me.
This is what I shall tell my heart, and so recover hope:
the favours of the Lord are not all past, his kindnesses are not exhausted;
every morning they are renewed; great is his faithfulness.
'My portion is the Lord' says my soul 'and so I will hope in him.'
The Lord is good to those who trust him, to the soul that searches for him.
It is good to wait in silence for the Lord to save.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to the Church.

Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 34. 2-3, 6-7, 18-19, 23

Response: The Lord hears the cry of the poor, blessed be the Lord.

Refrain

The Lord hears the cry of the poor. Bless-ed be the Lord.

I will bless the Lord at all times,
With praise ever in my mouth.
Let my soul glory in the lord,
Who will hear the cry of the poor./R

Let the lowly hear and be glad.
The Lord listens to their pleas;
And to hearts broken, God is near,
Who will hear the cry of the poor./R

Every spirit crushed God will save;
Will be ransom for their lives;
Will be safe shelter for their fears,
And will hear the cry of the poor./R

We proclaim your greatness, O God.
Your praise ever in our mouth;
Every face brightened in your light,
For you hear the cry of the poor./R

SECOND READING

Romans 8. 28,35,37-39

A reading from Paul's letter to the Romans

Paul writes; We know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him, who have been called according to his purpose. Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall trouble or hardship or persecution or famine or nakedness or danger or sword? No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to the Church.

Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL

Matthew 11. 25-30

A reading from the holy gospel according to Matthew

Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ

At that time Jesus said, 'I praise you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you have hidden these things from the wise and learned, and revealed them to little children. Yes, Father, for this is what you were pleased to do. 'All things have been committed to me by my Father. No one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son and those to whom the Son chooses to reveal him. 'Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy and my burden is light.'

For the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

THE PRAYERS OF THE FAITHFUL

God of compassion, you created a world for us to know your love and peace; yet amidst the beauty of creation we encounter pain and hurt and forces beyond our control. At times like this our hearts are shaken and ache with sorrow at the destruction of homes, livelihoods and property. Hear our prayers for those affected by the ravages of fire, those stricken with anxiety and fear, for those close to us and those in great need at this time.

Lord in your mercy: hear our prayer.

Gracious and ever faithful God, who through your son knows what it is to be fully human and fragile, feel and hear the suffering of your people; give us courage and strength for the days ahead; hear us as we give thanks for the skill and work of firefighter and emergency crews, for chaplains and Red Cross workers, and for all those working to bring relief and fresh hope; we give thanks for the generosity of those who provided help, opening their hearts and businesses to the needy.

Lord in your mercy: hear our prayer.

God who speaks, we pray for your Church and all who offer ministry in your name; we pray for our Bishop John, and our parish as we seek to bring your compassion and comfort to your people.

Lord in your mercy: hear our prayer.

Ever-present and nurturing God, surround your people with a cocoon of warmth and care; held with the softness of silk; but with the strength of strong twine. Begin in us a gently healing, that from pain and distress may come new life, hear us as we pray for ourselves and those we know in need of prayer Hold us safe and nurture us; may we find strength and compassion in you.

Lord in your mercy: hear our prayer.

We pray for those communities impacted by fire across the State; La Trobe Valley & Gippsland; Wunghnu & Numurkah; Riddell's Creek, Gisborne, Darraweit Guim & Monegetta; Romsey, Mickleham & Wallan; and for our community of Kilmore and surrounds; for those who lost their homes and those who were displaced; may our prayers bring support and comfort in their distress.

Lord in your mercy: hear our prayer.

God who creates and is creating, who brings forth life from the dust and ashes, work in us and our community and all affected by fire, as we begin the process of recovery and healing; emerging ever so slowly to new life, fragile and tentative as the new shoots that will appear in the blackness of the ground; faith tested yet faith nurtured, hold us your people, loving God, in the palm of your healing hand and drench us in your love with the sweetness of the rain; bring us to new life with recreating power in the name of the man of sorrows Jesus Christ our Lord who taught us to pray; Our Father... [Pg 124].
