COPYRIGHT

It is important that all competitors and teachers realise their responsibilities regarding laws under the Australian Copyright Act 3rd edition 2006 for both sheet music and recorded backings. This year there is only one AMCOS form, which covers copyright of your copies for both the adjudicator and your accompanist. This will be completed for each entrant as part of your online registration (Stardom).

SHEET MUSIC

Competitors are reminded that 2 copies of your music are required; one for the Adjudicator and one for the Accompanist. The appropriate AMCOS form must be attached to each copy.

The copy for the Accompanist should be presented in a form suitable for use at the piano.

At the conclusion of the performance, the Accompanist's copy may be returned to the entrant.

The copy for the adjudicator MUST be marked clearly with the section number and the competitor's number but NOT the competitor's name.

SHEET MUSIC TO BE HANDED IN ON THE DAY OF COMPETITION, PRIOR TO START OF SECTION. Folders for collection of the sheet music for each section will be available at the door/foyer. Please also complete the Section list with your competitor number and title of piece.

To cover your sheet music copyright obligations, you will complete the AMCOS Form as part of your online registration. (refer to COPYRIGHT paragraph). The Eisteddfod Committee has the right to destroy any photocopies immediately after adjudication. At the conclusion of the performance, any original music provided to the Accompanist may be returned to the entrant.

TIME LIMITS

Time limits must be strictly adhered to.

Time Limits are as specified in the Section listings within the Schedule. If a competitor goes over the time limit, they may be penalised.

ACCOMPANISTS

You are welcome to bring your own accompanist. Please visit The Accompanists Guild website <http://www.accompanistsguildofqld.org/> or www.mtaq.org.au for a full list of accompanists.

The Brisbane Eisteddfod recommends that you arrange a rehearsal with your accompanist prior to the Eisteddfod. Payment for rehearsals is a matter for negotiation between competitors and accompanists.

PLEASE NOTE: As all of the accompanists have many musical commitments outside of the eisteddfod, it is advisable to ring as soon as possible.

RULES - GENERAL

1. Competitors participate in this Eisteddfod according to all rules and guidelines listed.
2. The Event Management Team (EMT) reserves the right to allow variances of all rules and guidelines at their discretion. The EMT reserves the right to decide on any matter not covered by all listed rules and guidelines. Decisions of this nature will be deemed final without further question.
3. Volunteers and Adjudicator/s are not permitted to advise, interpret or vary any rules or guidelines. The EMT will not accept responsibility for any outcome arising from such unauthorized actions.
4. The EMT will not be responsible for any breach of Copyright, Royalty or Privacy laws.
5. The Venue and surrounds are SMOKE FREE!
6. A high standard of decorum, behaviour and professionalism is expected at all times. Unseemly, aggressive, abusive or unsportsmanlike behaviour is contrary to the spirit of the Eisteddfod and will not be tolerated in any form. The EMT will deal with any issues of this nature, as it deems appropriate.
7. In the interest of fairness no competitor will be allowed to perform if they have had professional contact with any adjudicator/s in the six months prior to the start date of the Eisteddfod.
8. Personal communication with or other representation to the adjudicator/s by competitors, teachers, parents, friends or associated parties is strictly prohibited and may result in disqualification at the Committee's discretion.
9. The Adjudicator/s may exercise discretion and withhold one or more prizes in any section.
10. The Adjudicator/s reserve the right to terminate a performance at any time within the rules and guidelines of the Eisteddfod. The Adjudicator/s' decisions are final.
11. The EMT reserves the right to appoint substitute adjudicator/s if circumstances require.
12. Awards and prize money will be allocated as per the Schedule.
13. The EMT reserves the right to alter or amend the program in any way. Sections may be combined or cancelled as deemed necessary.
14. Private videography or photography with any device is prohibited at all times in the Auditorium. The EMT has engaged professionals that have sole rights and comply with the Information Privacy Act.
15. Videography and photography in dressing rooms must comply with the guidelines of the Information Privacy Act.
16. Practice or rehearsal is not permitted on stage at any time during the course of the Eisteddfod.
17. No person will be permitted to enter or leave the Auditorium during a performance.
18. All mobile phones must be turned off within the Auditorium.
19. A protest of any nature must be made in writing and lodged with the EMT within one hour of the conclusion of the section in which the disputed matter arises. Protests will only be accepted from teachers and attract a $25 fee. The fee is refundable if the protest is upheld. Any protest will be referred to a Protest EMT for settlement and the resulting decision will be final and accepted without further question.
20. The EMT will not be liable for personal items lost or stolen during the course of the Eisteddfod. Lost property will be held for a period of one month after the final day of the Eisteddfod.

Rules Specific to Piano

1. Performances are for soloists unless an event indicates otherwise.
2. A person may perform only ONCE in the SAME event.
3. A different item is required for each event unless repeat performances are specifically allowed. If it is specifically indicated that an item may be repeated, it may be repeated ONLY ONCE (except when progressing to Finals).
4. Time limits normally provide for the presentation of ONE ITEM unless event requirements stipulate otherwise. They are strictly monitored and entrants exceeding the time limit will be eligible for 'comments only' - not for a placing.
5. Registration and performance rules are strictly enforced (see 'General Rules').
6. Entrants must conform to the age limits Random age checks will be made and entrants must carry a photocopy of their birth certificate or school ID with their date of birth.
7. Entrants perform at their own risk. Entrants agree they are of good health and fitness, and physically able to participate in an event. All care will be demonstrated, but no liability will be accepted for any injury sustained whilst carrying out that performance.
8. In case of insufficient entries in any event they may be combined with similar events.
9. A copy of the music must be provided for the adjudicator. Music must be provided with the name of the item and the composer clearly marked. If a properly printed manuscript is not attainable for a particular contemporary piece, a chord chart or, at the least, lyrics must be submitted. Photocopies will not be returned.
10. There will be warm-up facilities available. Each entrant will only be given 10 minutes of warm up time before it is their time to compete.
11. FINALS: Finalists to repeat their item(s) from the heats, unless otherwise indicated.
12. Piano Solo Awards - $20 Ellaways Voucher for 1st place + certificate, Medallions for 1st/2nd/3rd place: (6yrs&under)+(7yrs)+(8yrs)+(9yrs). One piece of music is to be played. If you choose to play a sonata, then only one movement is allowed. See time limits stipulated next to item.
