

Jason Rouse

Jason Rouse is a renegade touring stand-up comedian taking the mainstream comedy world and turning it upside down.

Over the last decade, this comedy outsider has been sharpening his teeth in clubs and festivals all over the world.

Born in Hamilton, ON and based out of Los Angeles, CA, Rouse has made it his mission to forge a new road and write a new chapter in stand up comedy. Mainstream comedy will be left for the dead.

Instead, this Jester from Hell has been unleashed onto international stages with all of the power of a derailed comedy freight train.

“He keeps pushing the envelope on what’s acceptable. He leaves the middle of the road in the dust.”
- Glenn Sumi, NOW Magazine
