

The Art of Telling Your Story: Find & Express Your Core Message

Your ability to craft and impart a compelling story will make the difference between coming up short and delivering your dreams.

John O'Hern Storyteller

In an interactive and engaging seminar, actor, author, and master storyteller, John O'Hern uses his natural comedic talents to teach participants the art of storytelling for presenting, pitching, promoting, and prospecting.

*"Engaging and humorous! Insightful and practical tips on shaking up your networking confidence and crafting a pitch people want to hear. John's approach to coaching is the entrepreneur's secret weapon." -Christina Kane
The Grove New Haven

*"John was fabulous! His presentation was as informative as it was entertaining. What was particularly telling, is that our group, accustomed to making short presentations about their respective businesses, did an especially effective job that evening. Many took his suggestions to heart, and it was fun to see how many of the "same" presentations now seemed fresh, interesting and powerful." -Alex Virvo
Stamford Innovation Center

"John not only has a magical ability to make people laugh but is also a skilled and generous teacher. In just a short session he taught me how to distill bland public speaking into a punchy tale that would grab an audience by the lapels and dare them to look away. I am so grateful."

-Wendy Kann, author

Casting with a Fragile Thread: A Story of Sisters and Africa

As an accomplished actor, author, and storyteller, John O'Hern teaches entrepreneurs, executives, and authors to integrate the art of storytelling into their presentations, enhancing leadership, inspirational and networking skills with confidence and peace of mind.

John focuses his talent to extract the core of a story out of chaos, coaching storytellers of all abilities

A regular on the local storytelling circuit, John has taught the art of performance storytelling at Norwalk Community College, held storytelling workshops, and is the author of a novel, a memoir and two plays.

203.952.4810
john@johnohern.com
KnowYourStory.net