

One:One Floral Design Classes

With Tanya of Oh Flora

Hey, I'm Tanya

THE GAL BEHIND OH FLORA

What started as a hopeful career choice almost a decade ago, and not knowing which direction it would take me, I began Oh Flora with a horribly hand-drawn logo and way too many free flowers while taking a part-time floristry course.

Since then, flowers have opened up more opportunities than I could have imagined. I've travelled the world for events, guest teaching, and hosting design retreats, and I have met and worked with some of the most influential names in the floral industry. .

I was frustrated with the lack of transparency and variety in vessels I used in my own events, so in 2019, we took a leap of faith into the product world with the birth of Oh Flora Store - bringing sustainably made vases to florists all over the world.

Intimate and high-end weddings, events, dinner parties, retreats, workshops, products, and online education, all these things and more have led back to my love of flowers and creativity. There are many paths to take in this nature-inspired world, and I'm sure many more to be discovered. I hope to share, educate and inspire others to see the possibilities that come from good design, hard work, and an open heart. With these things, you too can do anything you dream of.

Oh Flora has been featured in Vogue, Harpers Bazaar, Cosmopolitan, Cosmopolitan bride, Magnolia Rouge and Together Journal, to name a few.

YOUR OWN PRIVATE CLASS

An abundance of seasonal flowers, local botanics, full reign of all the Oh Flora props and styling pieces, and your own private class in the heart of the Byron Bay Hinterland.

These classes are a fun and unique experience to learn new techniques, build your portfolio and refine your creative process. You'll learn in an intimate setting, with plenty of time to test ideas and discuss your design and business questions.

Tanya takes a limited number of private design classes each year, so places fill quickly. Get in touch with you any questions via email or send Tanya a DM on Instagram @ohflorastudio

HOW WILL THE DAY RUN?

You choose the designs and work together with Tanya (prior) to your class to discuss your goals and choose your colour palette.

Classes begin mid-morning (exact time will be arranged at least one month prior). You'll spend the day in Tanya's light-filled studio, designing, have lunch together, discuss all your questions, and finish the day with a mini styling session of your finished designs.

Feeling creatively refreshed and inspired, you'll leave ready to take on your goals and dreams for your own floral design journey.

During the class, Tanya will take photographs of your work and yourself to use on your website and socials. You'll receive a sneak peek of a few photos within the week following, with the remaining images sent within four weeks.
