

Permitting and Regulatory Guidance

Should your food business be licensed by... [choose one]

A) the State Health Dept?

B) the City Health Dept?

C) the FDA?

D) the USDA?

E) All of the above?

F) None of the above???

Permitting is a complicated & treacherous landscape. Where, exactly, does the State cross over into the City? And the feds... where do they fit into your mix?

If you're just starting out or growing, we have the answers.

Did you get the right license for your food operation? Have you ensured that your vendors have the necessary permits & inspections to reduce your liability? A short conversation with Bulletproof! can be the difference between being fined... and being A-OK.
