FROM THE CORNER OFFICE

PS&S is expanding...again. Our Wall office is benefitting from the addition of Bill Salmon who is tasked with integrating his civil land development team with our outstanding environmental and utility services. Monmouth and Ocean counties present enormous opportunities for growth and with Bill as a new Senior Director of Land Development we have the right man in place. Bill joined our company in April and brings 28 years of experience for our current and future clients.

Further south in Cherry Hill, we are thrilled to be adding three architects to our existing team.

FOCUS ON: WALL OFFICE GROWTH

With a name like Salmon, where else would you work but near the water? New Jersey-native Bill Salmon joined the PS&S Wall Office in April as a Senior Director of Land Development to spearhead the enhanced presence for civil engineering and land development in the Monmouth and Ocean county regions.

Bill's familiarity with the Garden state is synonymous with many of his colleagues.

FOCUS ON: CHERRY HILL EXPANSION

PS&S is continuing its expansion in Southern New Jersey with the addition of three architects, formally of Moorestown-based Costanza Spector Clauser Architects (CSCA). CSCA specialized in providing architectural and interior design, project planning and graphics and rendering services with a concentration in the Healthcare Sector.

Charles Clauser will be a Senior Director of Architecture, Harry Wright and Stephen Sgro will both be Senior Architects, all based out of the Cherry Hill office.
