

2018/2019 Call for Theatre Proposals Theatre Season

WICA announces call for theatre programming ideas for the 2018/2019 Season and seeks production proposals for next season. Directors should be passionate about directing any piece they propose.

- Proposals need to be submitted no later than April 3, 2018. The production team will request an interview with a director regarding their proposal.
- The season will be finalized by late May and announced at the Donor/Volunteer Appreciation Party in June.

WICA is planning the 2018/2019 Season, and once again we are reaching out to you for great ideas. We are focused on work that is surprising, unexpected and centered on great story.

Proposals may be for world premieres, well known favorites, a radical re-envisioning of classic plays or other projects. The show could be your own show or a script you would like to work on.

Based on the success of past co-productions and our Black Box Series, we are also interested in creating opportunities for artists and groups that would like to retain greater ownership of projects.

BEFORE SENDING A PROPOSAL:

Feel free to contact Deana Duncan to discuss parameters and logistics. She can be reached by calling 360.221.8262 or by email at Deana.Duncan@wicaonline.org.

SUBMITTING A PROPOSAL:

Proposals of complete projects should be no more than 3 pages long, not including script or work samples, and must include:

- A summary of the project, including why it's important to you
- Additional materials could include a copy of the proposed script, sample of past work, a video, etc.

DEADLINE FOR PROPOSALS IS April 3, 2018

If you are submitting an idea for a play that is already written by an outside artist, please keep in mind that others may be proposing the same script.

Please be aware that WICA does not comment on why proposals are not selected. We occasionally make subjective artistic suggestions related to a project if we are asked to give feedback.

In order to create a season that poses a challenge to the creative teams and artists, while ensuring a high level of physical production quality, the WICA committee evaluates each proposal and rates it basic, intermediate, or complex. We have found that in the past a reasonable season from a design and production standpoint includes one basic, two intermediate and two complex productions.

Thank you for your proposal, the 2018/2019 Theatre Series Season will be announced in June 2018.
