A BILL

IN THE COUNCIL OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

To amend Chapter 1 of Title 23 to curtail the availability and effectiveness of defenses that seek to partially or completely excuse crimes such as murder and assault on the grounds that the victim’s sexual orientation, gender identity, or other inherent identity, is to blame for the defendant’s violent action and to require an anti-bias jury instruction in criminal trials if requested by the prosecutor or the defendant.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE COUNCIL OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA, That this act may be cited as the “Tony Hunter and Bella Evangelista Panic Defense Prohibition Act of 2019”.

Sec. 2. Chapter 1 of Title 23 of the District of Columbia Official Code is amended as follows:

(a) The table of contents is amended by adding two new section designations to read as follows:

“23-115. Limit on defenses that seek to excuse violence on the basis of a victim’s identity.

“23-116. Criminal trial anti-bias jury instruction.”.
(b) New sections 23-115 and 23-116 are added to read as follows:

“§ 23-115. Limit on defenses that seek to excuse violence on the basis of a victim’s identity.

“(a) For any crime of violence, sufficient or adequate provocation for a defense premised on “heat of passion” shall not exist if the defendant’s actions are related to the discovery of, knowledge about, or the potential disclosure of:

“(1) One or more of the following characteristics or perceived characteristics of the victim: disability, gender identity or expression, national origin, race, color, religion, sex, or sexual orientation, regardless of whether the characteristic belongs to the victim or the defendant, even if the defendant and victim dated or participated in sexual relations, or if the defendant or victim romantically pursued the other; or

“(2) The victim’s association with a person or group with one or more of the characteristics, or perceived characteristics identified in paragraph (1) of this subsection.

“(b) For the purposes of this section, the term:

“(1) “Crime of violence” shall have the same meaning as D.C. Official Code § 23-1331.

“§ 23-116. (a) In any criminal trial or proceeding, upon the request of either the prosecutor or the defendant, the court shall instruct the jury substantially as follows: “Do not let bias, sympathy, prejudice, or public opinion influence your decision. “Bias” includes bias against the victim or victims, witnesses, or defendant based upon his or her disability, sex, national origin, race, color, religion, gender identity or expression, or sexual orientation.”.

Sec. 3. Fiscal impact statement.

The Council adopts the fiscal impact statement in the committee report as the fiscal
