BE IT ENACTED BY THE COUNCIL OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA, That this act may be cited as the "Enhanced Representation Charter Amendment Act of 2019".

TITLE I. CHARTER AMENDMENT

Sec. 2. Title IV of the District of Columbia Home Rule Act, approved December 24, 1973 (87 Stat. 787; D.C. Official Code § 1-204.01 et. seq.), is amended as follows:

(a) Strike the word "his" wherever it appears and insert the phrase "his or her" in its place.

(b) Strike the word "he" wherever it appears and insert the phrase "he or she" in its place.

(c) Section 401 (D.C. Official Code § 1-204.01) is amended to read as follows:

"(b)(1) The Council shall be bicameral and consist of a Senate and a House of Representatives. Members shall begin their terms at noon on January 2nd of the year following their election."
“(2) The membership of the Senate shall consist of 9 senators elected on a non-partisan basis who shall be elected one each from the 9 election wards established, from time to time, under the District of Columbia Election Act. Senators shall serve 4-year terms. At the beginning of each legislative session, one member of the Senate shall be elected by the members of the Senate to serve as the President of the Senate. The Senate shall confirm appointments made by the Mayor.

“(3) The House of Representatives shall consist of 27 representatives elected on a non-partisan basis, 3 each from each of the 9 election wards established, from time to time, under the District of Columbia Election Act. Representatives shall serve 4-year terms, except that Representatives elected for the first term following passage of the Enhanced Representation Charter Amendment Act of 2019 shall serve 2-year terms. At the beginning of each legislative session, one member of the House of Representatives shall be elected by the members of the House of Representatives to serve as the Speaker of the House of Representatives.

“(c) Each chamber of the Council may establish and select such other officers, employees, and rules as deemed necessary and appropriate to carry out the functions of the Council.

“(d) Each chamber shall establish standing committees, with professional staff, to assist as appropriate and necessary to carry out the functions of the Council.

“(e) The Legislative Session begins on January 2nd of odd numbered years and concludes on December 31st of even numbered years.

“(f) In the event of a vacancy of a member in the Senate, the President of the Senate shall appoint a new member to fill the unexpired term.
“(g) In the event of a vacancy of a member in the House of Representatives, the Speaker shall appoint a new member to fill the unexpired term.

“(h) By a 5/6 vote of its members, a chamber may adopt a resolution of expulsion if it finds, based on substantial evidence, that a member of the chamber took an action that amounts to a gross failure to meet the highest standards of personal and professional conduct. Expulsion is the most severe punitive action, serving as a penalty imposed for egregious wrongdoing. Expulsion results in the removal of the member from the chamber. Expulsion should be used in cases in which the chamber determines that the violation of law committed by a member is of the most serious nature, including those violations that substantially threaten the public trust. To protect the exercise of official member duties and the overriding principle of freedom of speech, the chamber shall not impose expulsion on any member for the exercise of his or her First Amendment right, no matter how distasteful the expression of that right was to the chamber and the Washington, D.C., or in the official exercise of his or her office.

“(i)(1) The House of Representatives shall have the sole power of impeachment. Impeachments shall be tried by the Senate. A person may not be convicted unless, by rollcall vote, 2/3rds of the membership of the Senate concurs.

“(2) The Mayor, Attorney General, and members of the State Board of Education, are subject to impeachment for misconduct in office. Judgment may extend only to removal and disqualification to hold any office in the District of Columbia, but the person convicted or acquitted remains subject to criminal punishment according to law.”.

(d) Section 402 (D.C. Official Code § 1-204.02) is amended to read as follows:

particular ward, resides in the ward from which they seek to represent; (3) has resided and been domiciled in Washington, D.C. for 1 year immediately preceding the day on which the general or special election for such office is to be held; (4) has not been convicted of a felony while holding the office; (5) has not previously been expelled by either chamber of the Council; and (6) holds no public office (other than their employment in and position as a member of the Council, or as provided in subsection (b)), for which he or she is compensated in an amount in excess of his or her actual expenses in connection therewith, except that nothing in this clause shall prohibit any such person, while a member of the Council, from serving as a delegate or alternate delegate to a convention of a political party nominating candidates for President and Vice President of the United States, or from holding an appointment in a reserve component of an armed force of the United States other than a member serving on active duty under a call for more than 30 days. A member of the Council shall forfeit their office upon failure to maintain the qualifications required by this subsection.

"(b) To eliminate the appearance of a conflict with the proper discharge of duties, Members of the Council shall not engage in any employment (whether as an employee, self-employed, or providing contracting services) or hold any other position (other than their position in the Council) for which they are compensated in an amount in excess of their actual expenses in connection therewith, except that a member of the Council is exempt from this prohibition for the purposes of a teaching position to provide educational instruction in a primary or secondary institution, a post-secondary institution, or any other institution whose primary function is to educate individuals.
