Presents

Do You Hear What I Hear? Learning Music From the Inside Out!

Presented by Mollie Gregory Tower and Laurie Steele Lausi

Special Guest: Debbie Tannert...Master Elementary Music Teacher, Author, Graphic Artist

Saturday, September 26th, 2015 9 AM-1:00 PM

Gorgeous, timeless music masterworks, proven teaching strategies and 21st Century technology come together to provide an active, exciting and dynamic listening program for students. Participants will engage in new, effective learning experiences that can be taken directly into their classrooms and expanded into full-school involvement activities. Our materials are based on powerful current brain research linking music listening and brain development. Come and join us - door prizes will be given. A Note from Barbara Murray: The potential for full funding of these resources for all workshop participants is currently in discussion.

Mollie Gregory Tower

Tower has taught in Austin, in Dallas, and at Texas State University. She has worked as an author & the National Music Consultant for Glencoe/McGraw-Hill Publishing, and as Supervisor of Choral & General Music for Austin schools. Her latest publication, Using Music to Enhance Student Learning, was published in 2014 by Routledge Publishers, London England. Tower started her own publishing company, Mighty Music Publishing, in 2015. A longtime advocate for quality music education programs for all students, Tower has presented workshops for school districts throughout the country and at international, national, state and regional conferences. www.MollieGregoryTower.com

Laurie Steele Lausi

Lausi has been a music educator for 27 years, teaching all levels of classroom and vocal music. Presently, she is in her 20th year as choral director at Cherry Hill High School East in Cherry Hill, NJ where she has a large choral program. She earned degrees from Hardin-Simmons University and Westminster Choir College. Prior teaching experience includes elementary and middle schools in both Texas and Illinois. Mrs. Lausi currently serves on the NJ-ACDA state board where she is Senior High R&S Chair as well as Past President.
