

UNIFORM AND EQUIPMENT AGREEMENT

1. Your son/daughter/ward will be loaned certain items of clothing and equipment, the monetary value of which may exceed $500.00
2. During the course of Cadet Training, he/she may also be required to borrow other items or instruments, the monetary value of which may exceed $400.00.
3. Please caution your son/daughter/ward to take good care of the items on loan to them because you, the parent/guardian may be held financially responsible for all the items for which they have signed.
4. When leaving this unit, their individual clothing issue card must indicate that all items have been returned to the Supply Department, or that these items which are lost or missing have been paid for. Consideration for normal wear and tear is made at this time on the returned items and you will not be held accountable for this. Wilful damage or neglect on the other hand, will be your financial responsibility.
5. Worn out or outgrown clothing must not be thrown away. Return them to the Squadron Supply Department for exchange.
6. Unless all items are returned on discharge or transfer to another Cadet Squadron, action may be taken to fully satisfy and claims.
7. Signing below certifies that you accept financial responsibility for all items on the charge of your son/daughter/ward and that the above instructions have been made clear to him/her and are understood by both you the parent/guardian and your son/daughter/ward
