

KIM FERRER | Artist Statement

To seek is to find.

Being lost invites being found.

The act of creating requires an openness to both.

Art making is a conduit for me to express how I perceive and understand the world visually, emotionally and intellectually. My work has been inspired by Buddhist teachings, nature, personal experiences, raw materials and the making process itself. In the studio my practice shifts between a present playfulness and an unconscious intention.