Bourgogne Blanc

Chablis

Light, crisp, fossilized-seashell grown Chardonnay. Delicious when young, but never discount one of life's greatest pleasures... an aged Chablis.

Pinot Noir

New world Pinot Noir is often more fruit forward than it's Burgundian heritage.
 Sonoma Coast and Anderson Valley produce lighter Pinot, while
 Russian River vineyards are more bold.

Zinfandel

Medium bodied to robust and jammy, Zinfandel is the poster child of Dry Creek Valley. It ages wonderfully and gives a fascinating peach-yogurt note.

Cabernet Sauvignon & Bordeaux Varietals

Sonoma County

A noble variety, Cabernet may be king in Napa, yet a softer, more elegant style is produced in Alexander, Dry Creek, and Sonoma Valleys.

Cabernet Sauvignon & Bordeaux Varietals

Napa Valley

Distinct, like no other wine in the world, Napa Cabernets are wines that are fruit forward & fresh while young, but let them age and cassis, menthol, and eucalyptus are revealed.

Beaujolais and Vallée du Loire

Gamay as the grape of Beaujolais can show more fresh fruit and reductivity.
Cabernet Franc, of the Loire, tends to the herbaceous and mineral side.

Rhône Nord

For centuries, the powerful Mistral wind has followed the Rhône River warming the hillsides planted with Syrah. This phenomenon creates hints of game, blood, leather, and spice in the final wines.

North

Nebbiolo is a muscular, light red grape that surrounds the villages of Barolo & Barbaresco. East in the Veneto, Corvina makes beautiful medium-bodied, earthy, sweet, and spicy wine.

Central and South

Venture south into the heart of Italy to find Sangiovese with its lovely red fruit and Italian herbs. When blended with Bordeaux grapes, Super Tuscans are born. The grape Nerello Mascalese, grown in volcanic soils, dominates Etna.
