NOTES ON THE EQUAL OPPORTUNITIES MONITORING FORM

Victoria College Belfast is an Equal Opportunities Employer and it is the policy of the College to ensure that all eligible persons have equal opportunities for employment and advancement on the basis of their ability, qualifications and aptitude for the relevant post. The College selects those suitable for appointment solely on the basis of merit without regard to gender, race, religious belief, political opinion, age, disability, sexual orientation, marital status, or whether or not they have any dependents. A copy of the Equal Opportunities Policy of the College is available for download from the College website at www.victoriacollege.co.uk.

In order to ensure that the Equal Opportunities Policy of the College is implemented effectively and to comply with all relevant statutory provisions, applicants are asked to complete and submit this Equal Opportunities Monitoring Form with their application. The College also monitors the community background and gender of job applicants and employees to comply with the Fair Employment and Treatment (NI) Order 1998.

Applicants are not obliged to answer the questions set out on this Equal Opportunities Monitoring Form and will not suffer any penalty if they decide not to do so. However, the College encourages applicants to answer the questions set out on this form and in this context, it is important to note that if an applicant decides not to answer the question relating to community background, then the College is encouraged to determine an answer to this question using the residuary method (i.e. on the basis of other personnel information provided by applicants). Applicants should also note that under the Fair Employment Monitoring Regulations (NI) 1999 they are obliged to answer the questions relating to community background and gender truthfully.

It is important for applicants to note that any information disclosed in the Equal Opportunities Monitoring Form will be held in the strictest confidence and protected from misuse. Access to the information will be strictly controlled and it will not be made available to any of the individuals involved in the selection of the successful applicant. The information disclosed in the Equal Opportunities Monitoring Form will only be used to monitor the effectiveness of the Equal Opportunities Policy of the College and to comply with all relevant statutory provisions. It will not be used to make any decisions about applicants, either during the recruitment process itself or during any period of subsequent employment with the College.

As with all other forms of personal information, the collection, use, storage, and disclosure of monitoring information is covered by the General Data Protection Regulations and the Data Protection Act 2018. All monitoring information held by the College is protected by a high level of security and access to this data is strictly restricted to those staff whose duties make it necessary for them to have it. The misuse of monitoring information is viewed as a disciplinary offence by the College.

In addition, the confidentiality of community background information is protected through the provisions of the Fair Employment and Treatment (NI) Order 1998. Subject to certain specific and limited exceptions, these provisions make it a criminal offence for any employer or employee to disclose information on the community background of an individual that has been obtained or used for the purposes of monitoring.

Applicants shall note that the disclosure or release of monitoring information is permitted by legislation as part of any prospective or actual legal proceedings brought under equality legislation. On occasion it may also be necessary to use such information to compile monitoring returns for the Equality Commission or to respond to any requests for information made under the Freedom of Information Act. In all cases where monitoring information is disclosed or released by the College, the format of presentation will be such that it will not be possible to identify the information associated with any particular individual.

Completed Equal Opportunities Monitoring Forms must be returned to Miss Nicola Mawhinney no later than 15.00 on Friday 30 August 2019
