Detroit XPAC Attends Detroit Homecoming

Detroit XPAC, the political organization dedicated to electing public officials who will help to advance sustainable development in Detroit, would like to announce that the organization will be participating in the upcoming Crain's Homecoming Event from September 30 through October 2.

The Crain's Homecoming event will bring together over 175 expats from across the country. The event will showcase new and exciting developments in the city of Detroit.

"We are honored to be participating in this event for a second year," said Detroit XPAC co-founder Dr. Michael Dorsey. "We look forward to helping advance the conversation surrounding Detroit's brilliant future."
