

This week I will:

- dance like no one's watching.
- turn more than a few heads.
- avoid eye contact at all costs.
- dress like a tomboy.
- pretend to be a wallflower.
- be a social butterfly.
- curl up on my sofa in the fetal position.
- throw caution to the wind and make the most of every moment.

Just because you're on your period doesn't mean your social life should come to a screeching halt. That's why Tampax Pearl with 3-way leak protection is designed to work better than pads. To protect you better than ever. For a more confident feeling than ever. So you can feel good about wearing whatever you like, whenever you like. Especially during your period. So, upgrade to Tampax Pearl today. And get on with your life.
