Construction Management Academy:

You don't want to miss our newest Inner Circle or a la carte two-day event which is led by our stellar CT Homes team. They're going to dispel the myths of general contractors vs. subcontractors and the major differences, tips and obstacles you'll face when taking on large-scale renovations and developments. You'll learn how to assemble and develop your dream team by helping you determine who you need, how to find them, and how to manage them effectively once you do. Our CT Homes team will show you the ropes, covering everything from maximizing profits when taking on "from the ground up" construction projects, to utilizing proper due diligence, and what to look for in determining whether potential deals are worth your time and money. We hope to see you there!

Most importantly, you'll learn how a business plan enhances your credibility.

An Old Home Becomes New Again

You've heard the old saying, when life hands you lemons, make lemonade? Well that's exactly what Canadian FortuneBuilders' student Colin Nichols pulled off on this investment deal. The house, constructed in 1905, was in a massive amount of disrepair and recently went through many conversions. Over the years, the property had been converted from a single family to a duplex, then to a triplex and then back to a single family. The previous owner struggled to make all the conversions effective that eventually led to the home falling apart at the seams. Colin and his team rolled up their sleeves and went to work, transforming it into the beautiful home it is today. Lemons into lemonade, indeed! Tune into to hear about Colin's process of fixing up this once dilapidated property.
