region of the month: bavaria ♦

Bavaria is a magical place during the holiday season, filled with holiday markets, Glühwein (mulled wine), and crisp winter air. Though widely known for beer, the winter season in Bavaria is time to embrace not only the brews, but also the unique spirits and festive wines perfect for celebrating. Enchanted by its holiday cheer, Anfora is highlighting Bavaian booze (and a few other German curiosities) to ring in the season. Try a glass of Spätburgunder, also known as Pinot Noir, served from a traditional Franconian bocksbeutel, some unique and modern German Schnapps, or our “Cold Day Rose”, which is mulled wine with an Anfora twist!
