The Most Holy Trinity

Scripture Readings:

Exodus 34:4-9; Psalm - Daniel 3:52-56;
2 Corinthians 13:11-13; John 3:16-18

“For God so loved the world that He gave His only Son...” JOHN 3:16

Is your love conditional? Is there a price others have to pay to receive your love? Are you generous with your time, money and possessions? If you give someone something, do you expect something in return? Do you give your time freely or do you “fit it in” when it’s convenient for you? Pray for a grateful and generous heart.

Don’t have an estate plan? Don’t think you have an estate to plan for? There may be ways to provide for your parish on your passing without a will or a formal estate plan. If you have CD’s or other accounts at financial institutions, you can name St. James as the “transfer –on-death” beneficiary and it has the same effect as leaving the account to the church in a will. Parishioner Shane McDonald has offered to answer your questions about simple ways to leave gifts to the church, such as transfer-on-death designations, direct contributions from IRAs, or memorial requests. He can also address more formal gifts through such methods as specific bequests and charitable remainder trusts. Call Shane during office hours at 236-5874 with your questions.

The Holy Trinity

“Three in one, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost; three persons in one God; one in essence, distinction of persons — such is the mystery of the Trinity, such is the inner life of God. Just as I am, I know, and I love and yet am one; just as the three angles of a triangle do not make three triangles but one; just as the heat, power, and light of the sun do not make three suns, but one; just as water, air, and steam are all manifestations of the one substance; just as the form, color, and perfume of the rose do not make three roses, but one; just as our soul, our intellect, and our will do not make three substances, but one; just as one times one times one times one, does not equal three, but one (1x1x1=1) — so too in some much more mysterious way, there are three Persons in God and yet only one God.”
