Rules and Regulations:

As in all organizations, NWRCC has its own rules and regulations that are for the benefit of all. All members are asked to read and acknowledge the following paragraphs which outline individual member's basic responsibilities within Northwest Houston Radio Control Club.

PARENT/GUARDIAN
Please initial below

My child and I agree to abide by and enforce the Academy of Model Aeronautics (AMA) National Safety Code for all model aircraft operations.

My child and I have read and understand the Club's constitution, bylaws, and rules, and agree to abide by them or accept the consequences for failure to do so.

My child and I understand that the rules for invited guest pilots to fly on the club field include:
A. All flying guests must be invited by and supervised by a club member
B. All flying guests must have with him/her, a current AMA membership card
C. Guests are allowed to fly a maximum of 3 visits total. After 3 visits, guests must join the club as noted in the Club constitution and bylaws.

Youth members are exempt from work crew duties. Work crew duties are optional for Junior members.
Junior member: If you would like to be assigned to a work crew, please check here: Assign to Work Crew

Youth Members (under 16 years old):

Youth members must be accompanied at all times by an adult when at the NWRCC flying field. The adult guardian must be familiar with and accept responsibility for following all club rules and procedures, including safety and security measures at the flying field. There must be at least one flight-eligible adult member of NWRCC at the field any time a youth member is flying.

Junior Members (16-18 years old):

Junior members do not need to be accompanied by an adult when at the NWRCC flying field, provided they have their own transportation (no "drop-offs"). The junior member and his/her adult guardian must be familiar with and accept responsibility for following all club rules and procedures, including safety and security measures at the flying field. There must be at least one flight-eligible adult member of NWRCC at the field any time a junior member is flying.

Annual Dues/Fees:

NWRCC membership runs from January 1 to December 31 each year.	Junior Ages 16-18 years old	Youth Under 16 years old
Annual Dues	$20	$0
Initiation and Badge Fee – New Members only	$20	$0
Total Paid (Annual Dues + Initiation Fee, if applicable)		$0

Waiver of Liability:

I understand that my child is about to enter upon private property operated by Northwest Houston Radio Control Club as a flying field for radio-controlled aircraft. I further understand that my child and I must follow and obey NWRC club safety rules. I further understand that there are potential dangers in the operation of radio-controlled model aircraft that may cause my child or me injury, or damage my property. By entering onto this land, I waive any claim I may have against NWRC Club for any personal injury or property damage that I may receive while on this land. This waiver shall also apply to any claims for my injury by my heirs, my estate, my guardian, or conservator. I further certify that my child will not participate in model operation activities unless he or she is a current member of the Academy of Model Aeronautics (AMA).

Note: Northwest Houston Radio Control Club is a member club of the Academy of Model Aeronautics, and as such is covered by AMA liability insurance.
