HISHAM MOHARRAM, PHD.

I am a married man and father of three daughters. A scientist by formal training, I am an activist entrepreneur by higher design. I am a person of faith and I feel my life should sum up to benefit others. So I started a community-owned, science-based, certified organic agribusiness to address issues of environmental and social justice, as they are impacted by current conventions of food production.
