

Rules and Regulations ArubaSalsa

1. When registering for one of our courses, the contribution for that course has to be completed as well. The contribution will not be refunded.
2. The registration made is for the period of the course. A new inscription has to be made for a new course. When you continue your course and confirm through e-mail this requires you to complete the contribution.
3. The contribution for the course has to be fully completed at registration. When allowed payment agreements, you are obligated to finish the payment before half of the course, regardless if you decide to finish the course or not. When hindered by vacations, sickness/accidents, moving, weather etc. it does not exclude you from paying the complete contribution for the course.
4. Always let us know if you will not be able to make it to one of the lessons. Call or whatsapp at 593-7506 or e-mail us at info@arubasalsa.com or send a facebook message to www.facebook.com/arubasalsa
5. Missed lessons cannot be taken to the next course or season. You are always welcome to catch up on another day in the season inscribed for, if available.
6. If you do not participate with more than 50% of the course you will not graduate and have to repeat the course.
7. Participation of the graduation night is mandatory. If you do not participate you cannot continue to the next level.
8. In case of private lessons, cancellation of a lesson has to be made at least 48 hours before. When missing a lesson without cancelling in time, the lesson is lost.
9. There are no refunds, the contribution is personal and for the course and period you registered for.
10. If ArubaSalsa should cancel a course, the complete contribution will be refunded.
11. If there should be an illness that is preventing you to complete the course, the remaining lessons will be continued in the next season. This is only valid after you've indicated it to us. There should be a medical letter given to us as proof.
12. ArubaSalsa is not responsible for any injuries or wounding should it happen in our lesson.
13. ArubaSalsa is not responsible for any missing items or theft during, before or after one of our lessons or parties.
14. ArubaSalsa has the right to reject anybody to the course or party without giving reason.
15. All lessons are personal and not transmissible to others.
16. ArubaSalsa has the right to change the lesson or course to another day, time or location.
17. ArubaSalsa has the right to let another instructor rather than the regular one teach the lessons.
18. The instructors of ArubaSalsa will determine the level of a student.
19. It is not allowed to use drugs, or smoke during the lessons of ArubaSalsa. Excessive alcohol use is not allowed either.
20. Please take your dancing partner(s) into consideration. Make sure you are clean and fresh before you start the lesson. We always recommend all our students to use a good deodorant and to bring a towel.
21. ArubaSalsa has the right to take pictures or film anyone that is present at their lesson, course, party or event and is allowed to use this material for its marketing purposes.
22. By signing the inscription form the student acknowledges being aware of this Rules and Regulations form and complies by it.
