Important Policies

Terms & Policies

Events Held By Politicians/Political Organizations: It is very important of us to be in compliance with federal laws (see below) that prohibit our engagement in political activities.

"Under the Internal Revenue Code, all section 501(c)(3) organizations are absolutely prohibited from directly or indirectly participating in, or intervening in, any political campaign on behalf of (or in opposition to) any candidate for elective public office. Violating this prohibition may result in denial or revocation of tax-exempt status and the imposition of certain excise taxes."

Events Held By Politicians/Political Organizations (continued): If your event is used to raise funds to support your campaign or the purpose of your event is directly or indirectly connected to your campaign for election we will not be able to host your event. If your event does not fall under either of these criteria we are happy to be able to offer our conference center for your meeting.

Damage: The Event Contact Person will be responsible for all theft or damages (including repairs or replacement costs) to equipment, furniture, or related items at the Conference Center facility and LCHC campus as a result of the event.
