

Commonly Asked Wedding Questions.

2018-2019 FAQ's

Q: When is your wedding Season?:

The best Time for your wedding Celebrations is between the months of March and August. During this time of the year, the ranch is warm, blossoming (during April), and has minimal public traffic. We have are not able to host weddings during the fall season. This time of the Year is our Apple Season, and the ranch is bustling with the incoming apple harvest, and folks enjoying everything that the Glen has to offer.

Q: Alcohol Policy?

Our packages do not include bar service but may be added on for an additional fee. We do not allow hard alcohol.

Q: Do You Rent your facilities?

We are a working apple farm and as such do not rent out our facility. Instead we offer a set of full service packages that allow for a beautiful wedding and for us to continue with our farming activities.

Q: Are You Open to the public during wedding events?

Our standard public operating hours are 9:00-5:00 each day. All weddings are designed around these hours with a typical start time of 4:00 in the park areas.

Q: What are my food choices for a Reception?

We provide for full meal options to choose from and can accommodate vegetarian needs. We do not allow outside catering, with the exception of your cake.

Q: Do you allow a DJ?

While we do not allow DJ's, we do include in our reception packages full MC and sound system services. You organize a playlist and we will take care of the rest.

Q: How many Guests can I bring?

Our outdoor weddings can accommodate up to 300 guests. If your wedding is in the barn or your reception is in the barn it is limited to 130 guests partially divided between the main store barn and the Patio in front.

Q: What is the weather like during each season?

All times of year we generally are 10-15° degrees colder than the temperatures in the San Bernardino valley. We are at an elevation of 5000 feet MSL on the slopes of the Yucaipa Ridge, part of the San Bernardino Mountain Range, and experience the weather that mountain climates experience. Some days it will be completely clear in the valleys and we will have looming thunder clouds overhead and other days we will have bright clear skies while the valleys are veiled in cloud and drizzle.

Spring: has a variety of weather conditions. Most of our spring is sunny and mild, but we do experience rain, snow, hail, and any other form of precipitation during this time. While there is the possibility of precipitation we do have back up plans to help cope with the changing weather though it may cost more.

Summer: is the Bright, warm, and consistently Sunny season here in the Glen. The days are long and the sun is warm and the breeze is cool. Remember if it 95°F then up here it is probably about 80°F with a light breeze. This makes summer weddings an Ideal time for outdoor weddings.

Fall: the weather is still warm and the air starts to take on the scent of fall. This season is mostly closed off for weddings due to the huge influx of people purchasing our apples. We stop hosting weddings the third week in August and do not offer weddings until the third week in November.

Winter: This season has cold wet weather, but there is the occasional patch of warm sunny days.

Q: Can we Put a Sign in front of the ranch?

Yes you may make your own sign to be placed up by our ranch's entrance. We have signs to direct your guests once they arrive on the property.

Q: How much is the deposit?

Each package has a required deposit ranging from $500-$1,500 dollar to secure your booking. We then have two separate payments in place: the first due 4-6 months prior to your wedding and the second due 1 week prior to your wedding date.

Q: Can your package be customized?

We attempt to satisfy couples with various needs and budget by offering 4 full service wedding packages. Each one is tuned to the specific nature of the Ranch and how we find that these celebrations function best in such unique location. Therefore we are limited in our ability to customize or amend our offered packages.

Q: Where do we get ready?

For your convince we offer a private Farmhouse just 5 minutes from the ranch as your changing and preparation space. This is included in most (but not necessarily all) of our wedding packages.
