Welcome

We are honored that you are considering Los Rios Rancho and the Riley family, to host the day that will signify the beginning of your life together.

Nestled in the beautiful apple growing community of Oak Glen, scenic orchards and panoramic mountain vistas become the back-drop for your special day.

Historic Los Rios Rancho, operating since 1906, consists of 325 acres and 8,000 producing Apple Trees. Los Rios is Southern California's largest Apple Orchard and the only one that offers itself as a wedding

All of our services and offerings come with the experience of over 30 years in the business of event planning and coordination by Devon and Shelli Riley, operators of Los Rios Rancho . The Riley Family understands the importance of the atmosphere that your wedding presents to your guests, and how that represents you. We personally commit ourselves to providing a nostalgic environment that will showcase your wedding day with rustic charm.

Let us provide the atmosphere and expertise necessary to compose your perfect celebration. We supply the coordination, well trained staff, and rural atmosphere to create lifelong memories.

May your celebration be one of Good cheer and sweet memories.
Congratulations and Happy Planning.

Wedding and Event Coordinator

Event Spaces

Market Barn

Gather round the campfire under the watchful eye of Wilshire Peak. With a country store backdrop and front porch seating. The Barn provides the conveniences of an indoor reception, while contrasting the rustic atmosphere of the Glen.

Blue Sky Park

Set on the green in front of our historic country store, your event will have a back drop of heirloom apple orchards stretching up to the base of Wilshire Peak. With this site, you will perfectly capture sunsets and views to the surrounding valley.

Oak Knoll Park

Say your “I Do’s” under a canopy of majestic Sycamore trees. The Knoll is gently shaded almost all year, and will provide the perfect feeling of intimacy with your guests and Romance with your intended. The Park offers various ceremony locations.

Things To know:

One wedding at a time....

To make your day truly your own we offer only one wedding booking per day.

Restrooms....

You'll find easy access restroom facilities at the ceremony and reception areas.

Public policies:.....

Our public hours are from 9:00-5:00 daily. We coordinate the wedding timing so that there is as little public interference as possible while maintaining a welcome atmosphere for our public guests.

Alcohol policy....

We offer bar services for an additional fee. In order to ensure that your guests have a great experience at your wedding we monitor the number of drinks offered.

Music Policy....

We provide a master of ceremonies to make announcements throughout the evening and a sound system to play your song selection. In order to maintain a wholesome atmosphere we do not allow music that contains profanity or offensive speech.

Catering services.....

We offer 4 meal choices (choose one) for both the Sentimental Journey and La Vie En Rose Packages. Our kitchen staff are experienced and enthusiastic folks that are happy to work with you to find a meal that suits your needs. We do not allow outside catering services (excluding cake).

Bookings dates.....

Our preferred wedding booking months are February-August. We may book outside of these months depending on head count and package choice. We offer booking dates up to 16 months out.

Our Provisions.....

We offer full service wedding packages. We can always add to but cannot decrease from a chosen package.
