
Announcing New Partners and New Name for McArthur Franklin PLLC

As of today, May 1, 2017, McArthur Franklin PLLC will be known as Franklin Karibjanian & Law PLLC, with George Karibjanian and Lester Law joining Richard Franklin as partners. The firm will continue the proud tradition started by Ginny McArthur more than 20 years ago of a boutique trusts and estates law firm located in the Nation's Capital. Our services will focus on tax and estate planning, trust and estate administration, business succession planning, trustee and beneficiary representation and asset protection planning.

Each of the partners has approximately 30 years of experience in trusts and estates, and all have been thought leaders through published articles, speaking engagements at some of the largest and most prestigious conferences, and membership in professional organizations and bar associations. "We are excited to begin Franklin Karibjanian & Law, where we are all committed to achieving excellent results for our clients," says Lester. "Not only are we bringing innovative and creative strategies to meet our clients' goals and desires, but we share these ideas with our colleagues around the country," adds George.

"With George and Lester joining our team, we have greatly expanded our capacity and intellectual talent," says Richard. "It's especially gratifying as they share my passion for assisting clients in preserving family wealth through the generations as a tool in service of family members reaching their full potential."

In addition to the main office in Washington, D.C., the firm will have Florida offices in Boca Raton and Naples. George and Lester will be dividing their time between Washington and Florida. Richard is in the Washington office.

We thank you for your past support and look forward to continuing to serve your legal needs. If you have any questions, please contact one of our lawyers.
