

HEADED FOR THE HILLS

I am headed for the hills, I am headed for the mountain lands Somewhere I can breathe again, In the air of heaven Somewhere I can see for miles, standing underneath the stars. See how small I really am, and how big you really are. I am headed for the hills

I am headed for the road, I am headed for the countryside I am headed through the fields, just to drive and drive If only for the love of a song in my ears, Of the sun on my face, and the wind in my hair, I am headed for the road

I am headed for the woods, somewhere I can run and hide Take cover in the world on the inside Go wandering just to see what I can find Step off of the map and get lost for a while

I am headed for the sea, somewhere I can feel again The earth under my feet and the water on my skin Come face to face with something I can't understand Resolve that its ok to let go and dive in I am headed for the sea

I am headed for the hills, gonna leave it all behind, I'm headed for the hills, If only in my heart and mind.
