

DESERVE

I, I don't, I don't treat you as you deserve.
You, You don't, you don't treat me as I deserve.
You don't treat me as I deserve.

My life is a breath.
My life is a passing shadow.
it sways and it bends with the wind.

But I am a spirit.
I am more than flesh and blood and when it is time,
I will leave this behind.

Outside, we are dust. Inside, something's hidden in us.
And you, you are sick with love, for us,
for a treasure in dust, that you would go in your joy,
sell all that you had, and buy the field, and buy the pearl.

You, You don't, you don't treat me as I deserve.
I, I don't, I don't treat you as you deserve.
But I want to, and I will.
