You are not alone, I promise you're not alone.
I am closer than the breath you're breathing in.

You're 24 don't deny it, You're 24 don't try and hide it.
Maybe your 24, you say you don't know who you are,
but right now you know more than you have ever known before.

You are not alone, I promise you're not alone.
I am closer than the breath you're breathing in.

Your eyes have not seen, your ears have not heard,
What I have in store for you my dear,
what I have in store for you this year.

You're 24 don't despise it,
You're 24 don't try and hide it.
Maybe you're 24, you say you don't know who you are,
but right now you know more than you have ever known before.

Today you are loved and that's really all that matters!
