

THERE'S STILL TIME

Did i hear, did i hear that the end is near?
Did you say, did you say there's a reckoning day?
Am I gonna see it with my own eyes?
Is it true, is it true about the day of doom?
Is this it, is this it, the apocalypse?
Am I gonna see it with my own eyes?

Will there be zombies, fires and floods, will there be an EMP, moons turn to blood?

Blessed is a man if he knows the Lamb when he sees him.
Cursed is a man who has money, and food, and a place to hide.
And a head full of knowledge and a heart full of pride.
Cursed is a man if he does not know the Lamb.

Has it come, has it come, revelation?
It begun, has it begun, kingdom coming?
I, I'm gonna see it with my own eyes.

Will there be zombies, fires and floods, will there be an EMP, moons turn to blood?
Hell will rage, wars will roar, and then the coming of the Lord.

Blessed is a man if he knows the Lamb when he sees him.
Cursed is a man who has money, and food, and a place to hide.
And a head full of knowledge and a heart full of pride.
Cursed is a man if he does not know the Lamb.

There's still time. There's still time. He is patient and kind.

Cursed is a man if he does not know the Lamb. Blessed is a man, if he knows the Lamb.
