

HQ Explorer I-Spy July

#HQExplorers

All of these pictures are taken in Dunfermline but they are really close up!
Can you find out where they are?

Hint: Explore the Heritage Quarter! Start at Carnegie Birthplace, go up St Margaret Street, turn left onto Abbot St then continue onto the Glen.

Put a tick in the circles once you have spotted them!

Share your adventures with us online #HQExplorers
@CarnegieMuseum and @GoDunfermline!

1.

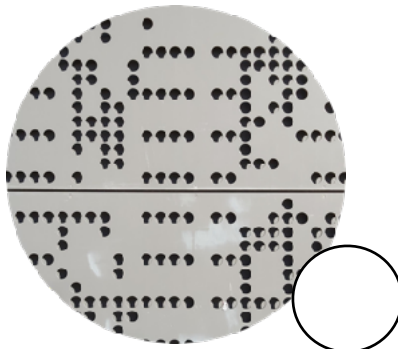

2.

3.

4.

5.

6.

7.

8.

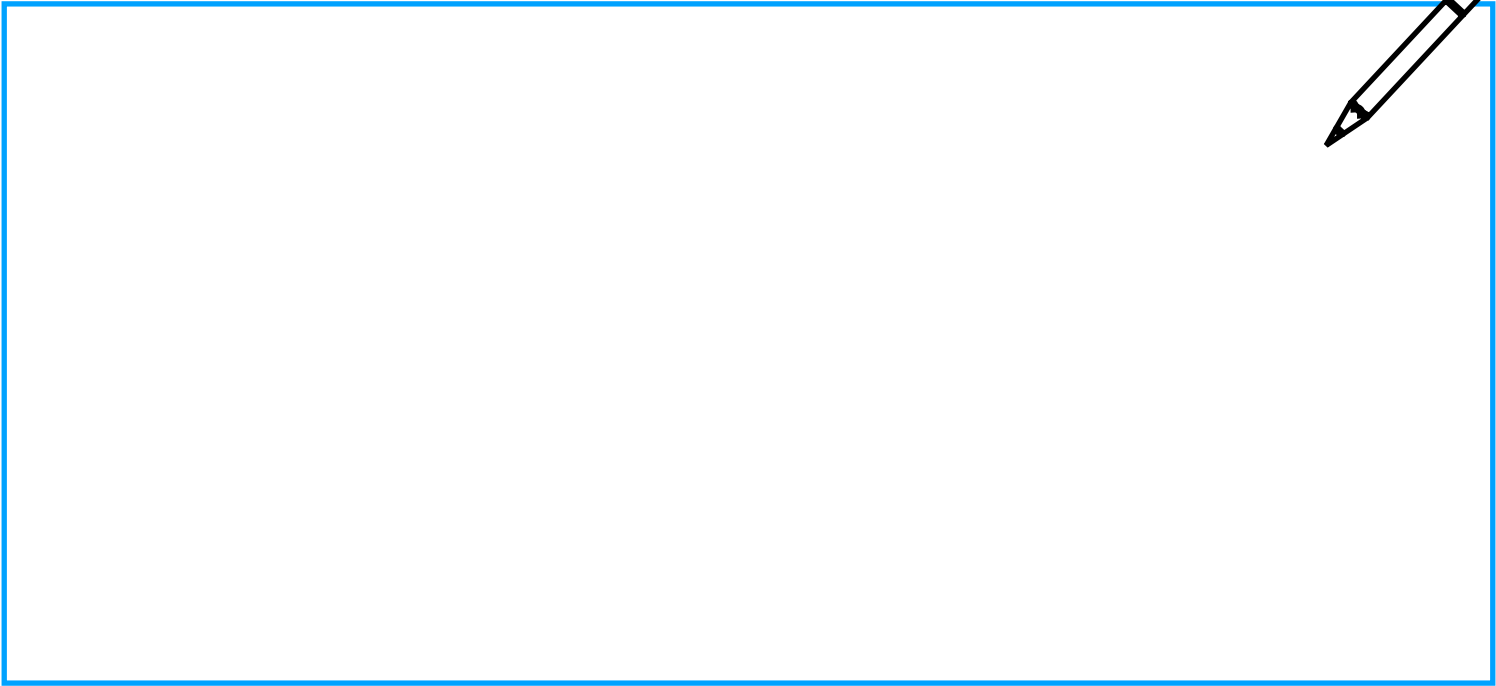

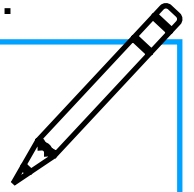

9.

Please Turn Over (answers/locations are on the back)

Why not draw some pictures of other interesting things you see....

A Google map showing the route with the locations marked is available at <https://bit.ly/HQExplore>

- Answers/Locations
1. Carnegie Birthplace Museum, along from main entrance
 2. Carnegie Birthplace Museum, near old cottage entrance
 3. Dunfermline Abbey Church tower, from St Margaret St Car Park
 4. Dunfermline Carnegie Library and Galleries, from Abbey Park Place
 5. Dunfermline Carnegie Library and Galleries, from Abbot Street
 6. Abbot House, from Maygate
 7. Dunfermline City Chambers, from Kirkgate
 8. Louise Carnegie Memorial Gateway, from Bridge Street
 9. Pittencrieff Park, location available on park map boards

This resource has been produced by the Andrew Carnegie Birthplace Museum and Dunfermline Heritage Partnership.

If you have any questions or feedback please contact education@carnegiebirthplace.com.

CONGRATULATIONS

.....

on completing the HQ Explorer I-Spy Trail July 2020

in

The Dunfermline Heritage Quarter

