Commander Fisher also commented on the annual meeting of MOLLUS and stated that the New York Commandery had made its usual contribution to the national organization which was greatly appreciated. Mr. Weddle requested the Commandery aid the efforts to preserve Civil War battlefields. The sense of the meeting was positive and Mr. Weddle was requested to contact Jerry Caroon to coordinate efforts with the national officers of MOLLUS. Mr. Post gave a presentation on the Annual Meeting of MOLLUS at Annapolis last September and the Naval History Conference at the United States Naval Academy. His presentation was well received.
