After such a difficult winter, some of us are wait-ing expectantly for the relief of spring. Yet March is well known for its unpredictable, stormy weather. Dashed expectations and slush make for disappointment. Yet we have no choice but to wait for more pleasant weather.

The season of Lent is also about expectant waiting. I used to hate to wait: waiting in doctor’s offices, waiting in line at the post office, waiting in some poorly defined line at the drug store. I used to see waiting as a waste of my time. Waiting was a testimony to the inefficiency of merchants and govern-ment offices. When we have to wait, we are not in control. We have to stop. Someone or something takes control of our precious time.

Whether it is due to age or greater patience or some spiritual growth, I no longer mind waiting. Waiting has become a spiritual opportunity to stop and breathe, to gather myself, to observe, to sometimes be kind or generous. It can even be a spiritual opportunity to tolerate people who are not their best selves at the moment. Waiting is a chance to not honk my horn, to not make the snide remark, to not walk out in a huff. Waiting is a chance to overcome myself.

Perhaps Lent can be such a time for you, a time to spiritually “raise your game.” Perhaps you could be a little more patient, a bit kinder, more generous. As we prepare for the coming sacrifice and resurrection of Jesus, may we be more sacrificial in putting others first. May we shine with the love of Christ.

See you in church!

Two Special Sundays
Confermand Sunday, March 15
and Laity Sunday, March 22
RCB boasts a congregation of extraordinary gifts, and each year two worship services are led entirely by lay leaders—adults on one Sunday, youth on another. This year, both services happen in March.

On March 15, our confirmands lead all parts of the the 8:30am & 10:30am services, overseen by Cari Pattison and Jonah Smith-Bartlett. This hearty crew has been learning about the faith together since September; see some of the fun they’ve shared on page 2.

On March 22, Daniel Johnson, a man who (literally) towers over our usher team, will preach at all three services: 8:30am, 10:30am and 5:00pm. A dedicated member of RCB, Dan grew up in California and has given countless hours to the church, including serving as head usher for four years and as a deacon for a three-year term. No doubt he’ll bring his trademark wit to a profound message.

Annual Choir Festival
a Great Success!
Our music department shined at this annual extravaganza on March 1, which featured all of our vocal choirs, and handbells, too!

For those who couldn’t make it, this concert, along with portions of the recent chamber music concert and other choral highlights, will be posted on our website under Music Archives. Log on to listen!

Cherub Choir Resumes
Rehearsals on Wednesdays, 1:30pm-2:00pm
All pre-K, four- and five-year-olds are invited back to Cherub Choir for Wednesday afternoon rehearsals, 1:30pm-2:00pm to sing in the Palm Sunday worship service. Questions? Contact Laura Green, lgreen@reformedchurch.org.

Services of Prayer and Healing
Continue the First Tuesday Morning Monthly
Stop into the Sanctuary at 10:30am on March 3, or any first Tuesday of the month, for an intimate, 30-minute service of prayer, singing and reflection. It’s a great way to get centered in the Spirit and care for those in need.

Holy Week Worship Schedule
March 29—Palm Sunday
8:30am, 10:30am & 5:00pm
Palms distributed at all services
April 2—Maundy Thursday
8:00pm: Dramatic reading of the Passion in slowly diminishing light, with communion
April 3—Good Friday
Noon: Family Worship
April 5—Easter Sunday Celebration
9:00am & 11:00am  (Note special morning times)
With choirs, strings & brass
5:00pm: The Gathering, with special music

Dan Johnson, our preacher for all three services Laity Sunday, was a shepherd during the 2014 Bronxville Christmas Pageant.

The Gathering Moves to the Edwards Room

New space, same great spirit, starting March 8 @ 5:00pm

When The Gathering began in 2010, it was designed to be a completely different worship experience than our morning services—more casual, with snacks…and, well, a little louder with its pop-rock-blues music. Congregational Hall (the gym) lent itself well to this seeker-friendly church-within-a-church. The bright lights, soaring ceiling, large windows and doorway right onto the street conveyed a message of welcome, openness and rootedness in everyday life.

And that spirit will remain, though The Gathering is moving “up the hill” to the Edwards Room to make way for our thriving youth program, which will now meet in the gym. The swap will allow our high school youth to spread out, and The Gathering congregation to stay warm in the winter and air-conditioned-cool in the summer, without having to move back and forth between the seasons.

So, if you haven’t been in a while, check out The Gathering in its new space March 8—and beyond. The Well, our afternoon Bible study, will meet in the Copenhaver Room from 4:00pm-4:45pm.

Lenten Prayer Time—After Each 10:30am Worship Service during Lent

Approximately 11:30-11:45am, in Cari Pattison’s office, in the hallway between the Sanctuary and Edwards Room. Join Cari and some of our prayer ministry team each Sunday in Lent for a brief and informal time of prayer. Come with any prayer requests you may have for yourself or others, or just to settle your spirit between worship and fellowship and draw near to God. No need to sign up or “join.” Just come when you’re able for one, two, or all six sessions!

Interested in Helping Out with Worship? We Need You!

Seeking Banner Carriers, Chancel Guild members, and Gathering sound technicians and set-up help

It takes so much to put together a worship service, both as it unfolds and behind the scenes. We are looking to fill the following volunteer positions:

Banner Carriers. Usually done by a youth member, banner carriers lead the procession of choir and clergy at the beginning and end of the 10:30am service. Contact Laura Green, lgreen@reformedchurch.org.

Chancel Guild. This stalwart group oversees the changing of all the liturgical elements from season to season, including fabrics, banners, the Advent wreath, and more. They also maintain the pew racks. Flexible schedule. Contact Betty Hewitt at bettybhwitt1@gmail.com.

Gathering sound technician(s) and set-up. Have sound experience, or want to learn? We need volunteers to help set up the audio system—including instruments, monitors and sound board—and to manage sound mix during the service. Set-up begins at 2:00pm; service ends at 6:00pm. You can come any hours during that time. Contact Sam Clover, sclover@reformedchurch.org.
Dawn Ravella Climbs Mt. Kilimanjaro
Fundraising effort to benefit RCB partner Cross-Cultural Thresholds

From June 30-July 7, 2015, RCB Mission Director Dawn Ravella will join with Friends of Cross Cultural Thresholds (a long-time RCB partner) to raise money by climbing the highest mountain in Africa, in an effort to raise awareness about the plight of children in Kibera. If you wish to make a donation, instructions can be found by visiting: www.firstgiving.com/fundraiser/DawnRavella/DawnClimbsKilimanjaro.

Join Dawn Ravella (and thousands of other Christians) in Washington, DC, to Explore the Mass Incarceration Crisis
April 17-20, DoubleTree Hotel, Crystal City

Each spring, thousands of Christians of all stripes gather in Washington, DC, for Ecumenical Advocacy Days, which highlights a critical issue and advocates for solutions. This year’s theme, “Breaking the Chains: Mass Incarceration and Systems of Exploitation,” dovetails with our Coming Home prison ministry. Join Dawn Ravella and other RCB congregants at this important event. Tickets available for the entire event or individual days. For information, visit www.advocacydays.org.

The Power of Relationship
Free on a Wednesday night? Make a meal and/or dine with Coming Home participants

The latest edition of our Coming Home prison ministry is well underway, with eight wonderful women enrolled. Each Wednesday at 6:00pm, all are invited to a community meal, which is followed at 7:00pm by closed workshops for the program participants. Time and again, graduates have said how important this meal time was in forging relationships and feeling welcome after years of challenge. If you would like to cook, provide or attend a meal, RSVP to Francesca@reformedchurch.org.

Please note that meals, while open, are still part of the program, so it’s important to honor our guests by arriving on time and respecting their desire to share without interruption. Thanks for your support.

A Community Center Rises in Nodine Hill with Help from RCB and The Rotary Club of Bronxville
Fundraiser at Siwanoy Country Club, May 9

As part of a major initiative in Nodine Hill, plans are moving ahead for Westhab to purchase and renovate Good Shepherd Church to turn the building into a much-needed community center. RCB and the Rotary Club have been instrumental in the process.

Dayspring Community Center—named after Good Shepherd’s previous name (Dayspring Presbyterian Church)—will be a boon to the neighborhood. Not only will the church’s congregation continue to meet there, but the building and grounds will provide free arts enrichment, recreation, academic support and more to 200 local youth six days per week, year round. Dayspring’s vision also includes:
• A sorely needed child care program
• Adult education, job training and placement
• Community meeting space
• Food pantry
• Space for other community non-profits

RCB and the Rotary Club of Bronxville have been involved in the community for years, and are hosting a fundraiser on Saturday, May 9, to benefit childhood literacy programs and build a library and family room at Dayspring. Held at Siwanoy, the evening honors Ashley Hanrahan, Chairman of the Board, Bronxville School Foundation.

For more information, contact Doris Benson, dwbenson1@verizon.net or 914-961-6554.

Looking for Ways to Serve?
Here are three opportunities to share your time and talent with RCB:
• Calligrapher: Help update the church Book of Remembrance, on display in the Narthex. You may use your talent on your own schedule. For more information, contact Betty Hewitt, bettybhewitt1@gmail.com or (914) 337-3820.
• Chefs: Coming Home Program is looking for chefs and servers for dinner meetings on March 11 and 18, April 1, 15, 22, and 29. Contact Francesca, Francesca@reformedchurch.org.
• Sunday Soupmakers for Coffee Hour in Lent. We need a handful of soup-lovers to provide a batch each Sunday in Lent. Contact Judi McCandless, jmccandless@reformedchurch.org.
LIBRARY CORNER

New Anthology of World Religions
Acquired for the Memorial Library

The magisterial Norton Anthology of World Religions, edited by world-renowned scholars under the direction of Pulitzer Prize winner Jack Miles, has been added to the Memorial Library’s collection. This portable library includes more than 1,000 primary texts from the world’s major religions: Hinduism, Buddhism, and Daoism (Volume 1); Judaism, Christianity, and Islam (Volume 2).

The anthology brings together fundamental works – the Bhagavad Gita, the Daodejing, the Bible, the Qur’an – with the writings of scholars, seekers, believers, and even skeptics, whose voices over centuries have kept these religions vital.

To help readers encounter strikingly unfamiliar texts with pleasure, these volumes provide accessible introductions, headnotes, annotations, pronouncing glossaries, maps, illustrations, and chronologies. It also includes a dazzling general introduction by Jack Miles that questions whether religion can be defined, and illuminates how world religions came to be acknowledged and studied, absorbed and altered, understood and misunderstood.

For readers of any religion, The Norton Anthology of World Religions opens new worlds that, as Miles writes, invite us all “to see others with a measure of openness, empathy, and good will….In that capacity lies the foundation of human sympathy and cultural wisdom.”

Released in November, this landmark work is currently on display in the Memorial Library along with books by the renowned Bible scholar Marcus J. Borg, who died last month.

Sunday Morning Adult Education

Sundays, 9:15am-10:15am, Calvin Room

Series on the Beatitudes

The beatitudes have been called the cornerstone of Christian thought. Saint Augustine considered them “the perfect standard of the Christian life.” The nine blessings comprise the beginning of the first sermon Jesus delivered in Matthew (5:1-12), though four of them come a little later in Luke’s gospel.

This month, Tony Lemberger, Judi McCandless and Sondra Luger will be leading (individually) a five-part series on these radical teachings and what they might be saying to us today.

March 1, 8 & 15: Tony Lemberger covers Beatitudes 1-6 (two each session)

March 22, Judi McCandless discusses Beatitudes 7 & 8

March 29, Sondra Luger closes out the series with a discussion of Matthew 5:11-12, a kind of commentary on the first eight beatitudes.

LENTEN PANCAKE BREAKFAST

Sunday, March 22, 9:15am, Congregational Hall

This meal of fruit salad, pancakes, and bacon is a great way for adults and families to continue this traditional season of reflection and penitence. Special bonus: the Cathedral Choir will sing special music! RSVP Louanne@reformedchurch.org.

March 20, Alexis Mastromarino
March 27, Cari Pattison
According to Therese Rando, author of How to Go on Living When Someone you Love Dies, we tend to believe several myths when we think about grief:

- Grief follows a straight and logical path
- Moving on with life means you are forgetting about the loved one who died
- Everyone grieves the same
- Grief should last about a year
- If you don’t cry, it means you aren’t sorry about the loss
- It’s better to grieve alone

In reality, there is no “right” way to grieve. However, Rando emphasizes several phases in the grief process that reflect a healthy way of experiencing grief. She calls these steps the “Six R’s”:

- Recognizing the loss: Experience the loss and understand that it has happened
- Reacting: It’s important to react emotionally to the loss
- Recollecting and Re-experiencing: Review memories of the lost relationship
- Relinquishing: Begin to realize and accept that the world has truly changed
- Readjusting: Begin the process of returning to daily life; the loss starts to feel less acute
- Reinvesting: In re-entering the world, we accept the changes and form new relationships and commitments.

While recognizing that these grief phases (you could call them “myth-busters”) might help relieve us from self-judgment and give us a sense of the path of grief, it is particularly important to comfort ourselves in concrete ways during a time of acute grief.

If you or a loved one is in the midst of such a time, consider gathering strength from people around you who are going through a similar experience. You might consider joining with others who can lend you their spiritual strength and next month our church will begin offering just such an opportunity through a six-week grief support group. Offered weekly, one of the groups will be held in the evening, and another during the day. If you would like further details about these groups, please contact Cari Pattison at 914-337-6776, or cari@reformedchurch.org.

Grief Support Group

Small groups starting in April

Grieving is natural—and mysterious. We each grieve in our own way, with no time table for any part of the process. If you or someone you know is grieving the death of someone special, you are welcome to take part in a weekly afternoon or evening support group beginning in April. For information, contact Cari Pattison, cari@reformedchurch.org or ext. 115.

A.B.C. (About Baptism and Communion)
Sacraments Class This Month

Led by Cari Pattison
A.Bout B.aptism and C.ommunion (A.B.C.) is a long-standing tradition in our church that educates families about the sacraments in the Reformed Christian faith. Every year, third graders and their parents are invited to participate in the program, which culminates with a special communion service during 10:30am worship on Sunday, April 12, 2015.

- March 8 and March 15, Room 400, Noon-1:00pm, Each third-grader must attend both classes with a parent. RSVP to louanne@reformedchurch.org.
- Sunday, March 22, Room 400, Noon-1:00pm make-up class, This class is available for those unable to attend one of the classes on March 8 or 15.
- Sunday April 12, 9:00am, Congregational Hall. All third-graders must attend a special meeting with elders in the Fellowship Room, followed by breakfast, and communion at the 10:30am service.

Christian Ethicist Dr. Kate Ott Presents
Workshops on Faith and Relationships

Sunday, March 8: Three age-specific sessions—all free—in the Calvin Room

Dr. Kate Ott, assistant professor of Christian Social Ethics at Drew University Theological School, will lead three age-appropriate workshops on faith, sexuality and relationships.

For Parents & Caregivers: 7:00pm-9:00pm
This talk will include information on children's and teen's sexual development and faith development, as well as current research on what works to help kids put their faith values into practice.

This workshop is open to non-church members, too, so bring friends! You won’t want to miss it!

For Fifth Graders: 10:30am-12:30pm, includes lunch
This workshop focuses on changing bodies and body image, developing healthy friendships, and mixed messages kids get from videos, TV and social media.

Open to all fifth-graders of RCB families, and will replace regular fifth-grade Church School. Please bring your child directly to the Calvin Room. If you are not interested in having your child participate, he/she may join you in the Sanctuary during the 10:30am service.

For the Confirmands: 3:00pm-4:30pm
Dr. Ott will join Pastor Cari's confirmation class in the afternoon to present a fun and dynamic workshop that includes discussion on what our Christian faith says about building healthy, value-based relationships, especially in this age of social media.

If you have any questions, contact Cari Pattison, ext. 115, or Jonah Smith-Bartlett, ext. 124.
Confirmation Class Schedule
All classes 3:00pm-4:30pm—Thank you for being on time!

March 3, 4, 5 —Pick a day to come to an after-school workshop for preparing worship, one session for each student, two sessions for preachers. Sessions are any one-hour period on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, 3-6pm, in the Copenhaver Room.

March 8: Relationships, Faith, and Sexuality—Special Class with Dr. Kate Ott (She’s fantastic!)

March 14: Rehearsal in Sanctuary for leading worship—1:00pm-3:00pm (3:00pm-5:00pm for preachers)

March 15: STUDENTS LEAD BOTH MORNING WORSHIP SERVICES, INCLUDING EVERYTHING! PARENTS AND MENTORS ATTEND!

MARCH 22: CLASS #9—So what happens now? What does a Christian do to grow? (and all other

Tax Time is a Smart Time to Review Your IRA, 401(k) and 403(b) Beneficiary Designation Forms

As you gather your tax information, please take note of the Form 5498 you have received from each of your IRA providers, reporting the fair market value of your account. Having this updated information in hand makes this an ideal time to review your beneficiary designation form for each account.

Beneficiary designation forms govern how your IRAs and certain qualified retirement plans (e.g., 401(k) or 403(b) plans) will be distributed after your death. You can change your beneficiary(ies) at any time by requesting and completing a new form.

Please consider naming The Reformed Church of Bronxville (Tax ID number 13-1763812) as a beneficiary of an IRA, 401(k) or a 403(b) plan. You can name the church as the beneficiary of an entire account or a percentage of plan assets.

This is a simple way to provide a legacy to the church without rewriting your will or living trust. It is also smart from a tax standpoint. Assets in traditional IRAs, 401(k) or 403(b) plans are taxed more heavily than most other assets when left to individual heirs. But they pass tax free to charity. So every penny would be put to work to benefit our church.

For further information, please contact Planned Giving Committee Chair Suzanne Bloomer at 914-337-0142 or Chief Operating Officer, Alan Zanzano, at 914-337-6776, ext. 117. And please let Suzanne or Alan know if you name the church as a beneficiary, so they can welcome you into the church’s Legacy Society.

EASTER MEMORIALS

The Flower Committee is now making plans to fill the Chancel with lilies on Easter morning. To make a contribution in memory or in honor of loved ones, please indicate by returning this form to the church office by March 31.

Please accept this contribution of $ _______ payable to The Reformed Church for Easter decorations.
